CHRISTIAN PUBLISHING ASSOCIATION
DAYTON, OHIO

Copyright, 1891 and 1909, by the
CHRISTIAN PUBLISHING ASSOCIATION

The Text of the Responsive Readings in this book is taken from the American Standard Edition of the Revised Bible, copyright 1901 by Thomas Nelson & Sons, and is used by their permission.

PREFACE

NEARLY eighteen years ago, the first edition of The Christian Hymnary was published, containing some features not before found in any book prepared for the use of our people. It was received with favor, passing through several editions. Suggestions of changes in the book were made, as a result of use, and the Board of Trustees of the Christian Publishing Association, several months ago, appointed the undersigned a Committee to revise and improve the Hymnary.

After several meetings, it was decided last January to make a thorough revision, necessitating new plates for the entire book, reducing the number of hymns more than one-fifth, increasing the number of Responsive Readings, and seeking to make the book, containing 445 pages, of greater service to the churches.

In reducing the number of hymns, care has been exercised to retain the best, while the same aim has been kept in view in the exclusion of tunes. A few hymns have been added, most of which have been written by our own ministers, while a few tunes have been introduced, composed by Prof. Alfred M. Wilber, Rev. C. V. Strickland, and Prof. C. H. Gabriel, to whom grateful acknowledgment is hereby expressed.

The music typography is larger and clearer than in the first edition, which must be a delight to the eye, while an entire hymn, as far as practicable, has been printed within the staff of each tune, a feature which is worthy of special attention.

The Responsive Readings, divided into thirty-five selections of convenient length, would seem to be sufficient to serve their purpose in all congregations which include responsive reading in their order of service.

The Committee feels confident that the mechanical part of the work is the very best, and that this edition of the Hymnary is such as will meet the needs of all our churches, to whose patronage the work is heartily commended.

The Committee sends forth the book with the earnest desire that it may be generally used, and may prove an efficient help in the service of the Lord's House.

2 Germany L. M. A Nobler Rest

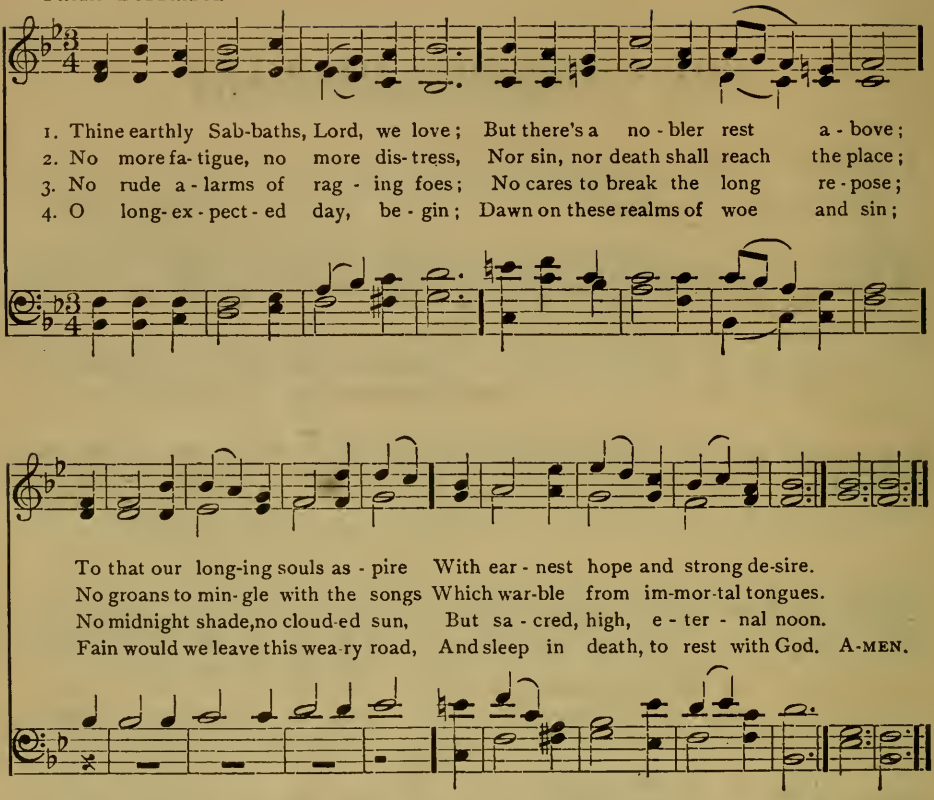
PHILIP DODDRIDGE — BEETHOVEN



1. Thine earthly Sab-baths, Lord, we love; But there's a no-bler rest a-bove;
2. No more fa-tigue, no more dis-tress, Nor sin, nor death shall reach the place;
3. No rude a-larms of rag-ing foes; No cares to break the long re-pose;
4. O long-ex-pect-ed day, be-gin; Dawn on these realms of woe and sin;
To that our long-ing souls as-pire With ear-nest hope and strong de-sire.
No groans to min-gle with the songs Which war-ble from im-mor-tal tongues.
No midnight shade, no cloud-ed sun, But sa-cred, high, e-ter-nal noon.
Fain would we leave this wea-ry road, And sleep in death, to rest with God. A-MEN.

3 Rejoicing in the Sabbath

1 My opening eyes with rapture see
The dawn of thy returning day;
My thoughts, O God, ascend to thee;
While thus my early vows I pay.

2 I yield my heart to thee alone,
Nor would receive another guest;
Eternal King, erect thy throne,
And reign sole Monarch in my breast.

3 O, bid this trifling world retire,
And drive each carnal thought away,
Nor let me feel one vain desire,
One sinful thought, through all the day.

4 Then, to thy courts when I repair,
My soul shall rise on joyful wing,
The wonders of thy love declare,
And join the strains which angels sing.

4 Curtis L. M. The Lord will give Grace and Glory

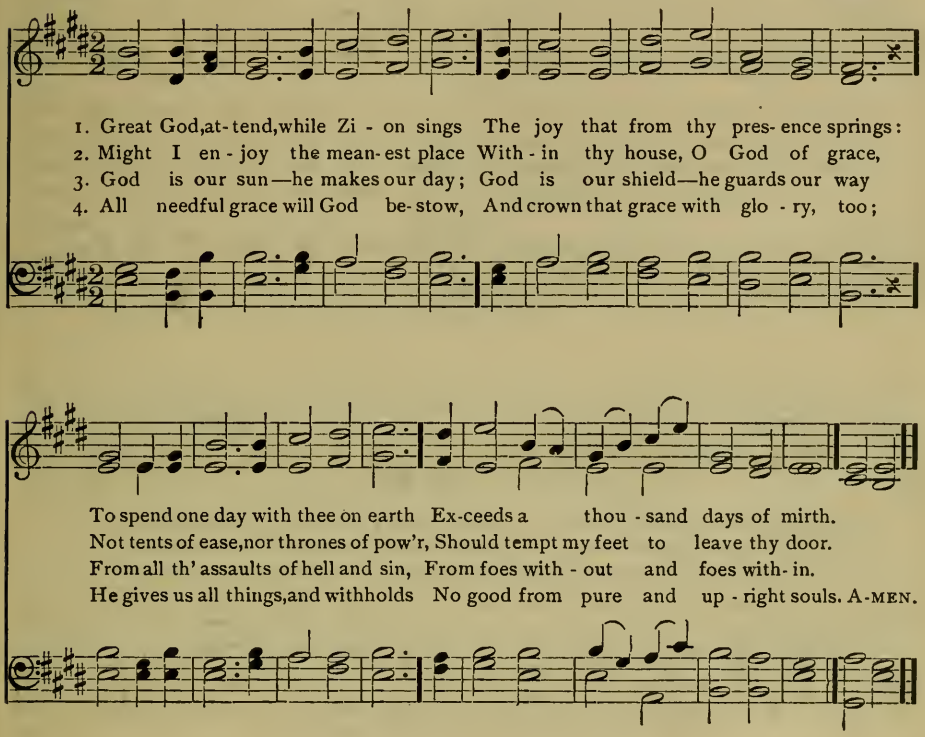
ISAAC WATTS From "Jubilant Voices." L. V. WHEELER



1. Great God, at-tend, while Zi - on sings The joy that from thy pres- ence springs:
2. Might I en - joy the mean- est place With - in thy house, O God of grace,
3. God is our sun—he makes our day; God is our shield—he guards our way
4. All needful grace will God be- stow, And crown that grace with glo - ry, too;
To spend one day with thee on earth Ex-ceeds a thou - sand days of mirth.
Not tents of ease, nor thrones of pow'r, Should tempt my feet to leave thy door.
From all th' assaults of hell and sin, From foes with - out and foes with- in.
He gives us all things, and withholds No good from pure and up - right souls. A-MEN.

5 Public Worship

1 Oh come! loud anthems let us sing,
Loud thanks to our Almighty King;
For we our voices high should raise,
When our Salvation's Rock we praise.

2 Into his presence let us haste,
To thank him for his favors past;
To him address in joyful songs,
The praise that to his name belongs.

3 Oh, let us to his courts repair,
And bow with adoration there;
With joy and fear, devoutly all
Before the Lord, our Maker, fall!

TATE and BRADY

6 Migdol. L. M. How Amiable are Thy Tabernacles

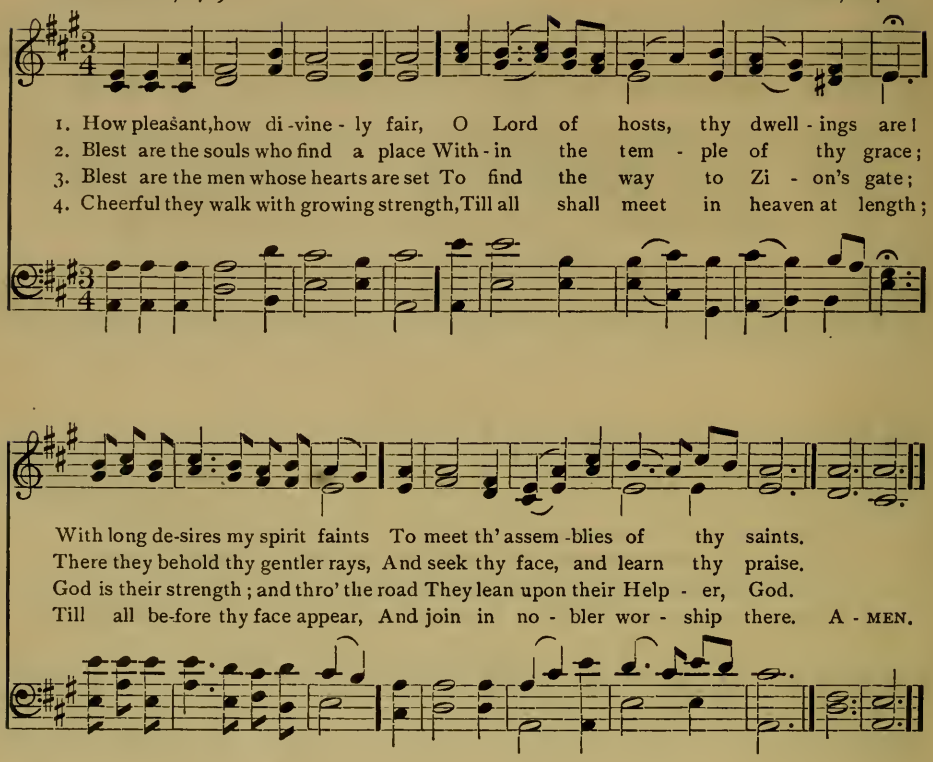
ISAAC WATTS, 1719 — LOWELL MASON, 1840



1. How pleasant, how di-vine-ly fair, O Lord of hosts, thy dwell-ings are!
2. Blest are the souls who find a place With-in the tem-ple of thy grace;
3. Blest are the men whose hearts are set To find the way to Zi-on's gate;
4. Cheerful they walk with growing strength, Till all shall meet in heaven at length;
With long de-sires my spirit faints To meet th' assem-blies of thy saints.
There they behold thy gentler rays, And seek thy face, and learn thy praise.
God is their strength; and thro' the road They lean upon their Help-er, God.
Till all be-fore thy face appear, And join in no-bler wor-ship there. A-MEN.

7 Supplication.

1 Great God, the followers of thy Son,
We bow before thy mercy-seat,
To worship thee, the Holy One,
And pour our wishes at thy feet.

2 O, grant thy blessing here to-day;
O, give thy people joy and peace;
The tokens of thy love display,
And favor that shall never cease.

3 We seek the truth which Jesus brought;
His path of light we long to tread;
Here be his holy doctrines taught,
And here their purest influence shed.

4 May faith, and hope, and love abound;
Our sins and errors be forgiven;
And we, from day to day, be found
Children of God and heirs of heaven.

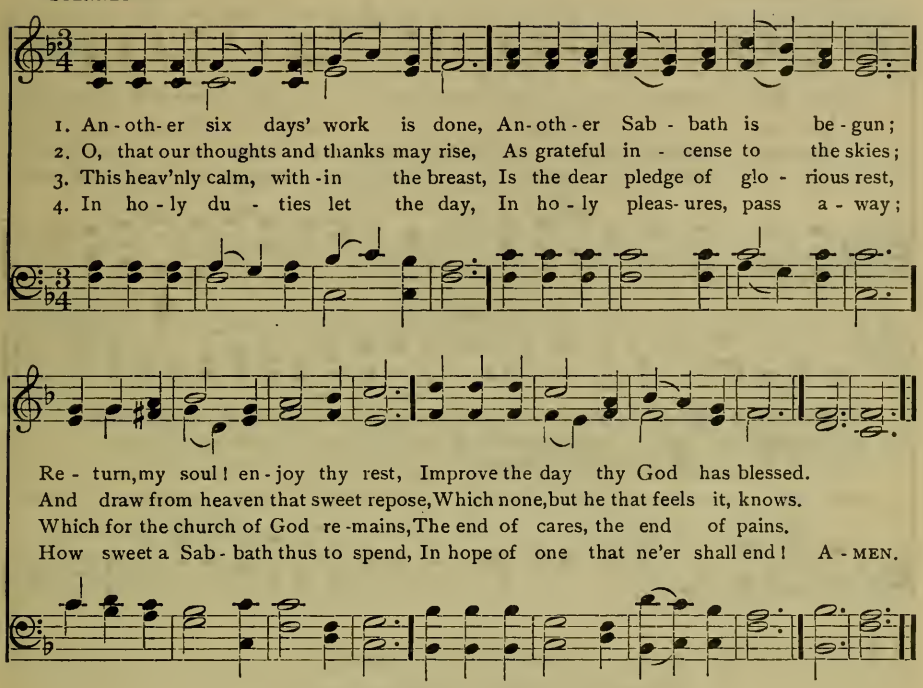
The Sabbath

STENNET German



1. An-oth-er six days' work is done, An-oth-er Sab-bath is be-gun;
2. O, that our thoughts and thanks may rise, As grateful in-cense to the skies;
3. This heav'nly calm, with-in the breast, Is the dear pledge of glo-rious rest,
4. In ho-ly du-ties let the day, In ho-ly pleas-ures, pass a-way;
Re-turn, my soul! en-joy thy rest, Improve the day thy God has blessed.
And draw from heaven that sweet repose, Which none, but he that feels it, knows.
Which for the church of God re-mains, The end of cares, the end of pains.
How sweet a Sab-bath thus to spend, In hope of one that ne'er shall end! A-MEN.

Surely the Lord is in This Place

1 Lo, God is here! let us adore,
And humbly bow before his face;
Let all within us feel his power,
Let all within us seek his grace.

2 Lo, God is here! him, day and night,
United choirs of angels sing:
To him, enthroned above all height,
Heaven's host their noblest praises bring.

3 Being of beings, may our praise
Thy courts with grateful incense fill;
Still may we stand before thy face,
Still hear and do thy sovereign will.

G. TERSTEEGEN. Tr. JOHN WESLEY, 1739.

10 All Saints. L. M. Every Place a Temple

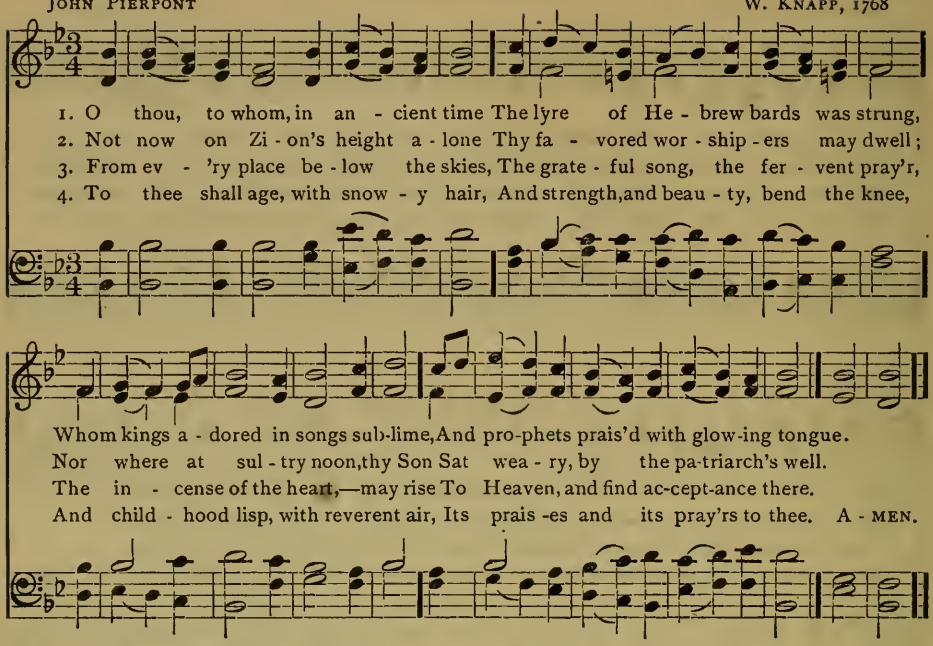
JOHN PIERPONT — W. KNAPP, 1768



1. O thou, to whom, in an - cient time The lyre of He - brew bards was strung,
2. Not now on Zi - on's height a - lone Thy fa - vored wor - ship - ers may dwell;
3. From ev - 'ry place be - low the skies, The grate - ful song, the fer - vent pray'r,
4. To thee shall age, with snow - y hair, And strength, and beau - ty, bend the knee,
Whom kings a - dored in songs sub-lime, And pro-phets prais'd with glow-ing tongue.
Nor where at sul - try noon, thy Son Sat wea - ry, by the pa-triarch's well.
The in - cense of the heart,—may rise To Heaven, and find ac-cept-ance there.
And child - hood lisp, with reverent air, Its prais -es and its pray'rs to thee. A - MEN.

11 The Hour of Prayer.

1 Blest hour! when mortal man retires,
To hold communion with his God,
To send to heaven his warm desires,
And listen to the sacred word.

2 Blest hour! for, where the Lord resorts,
Foretastes of future bliss are given;
And mortals find his earthly courts
The house of God, the gate of Heaven!

3 Hail, peaceful hour! supremely blest,
Amid the hours of worldly care,
The hour that yields the spirit rest,
That sacred hour, the hour of prayer.

4 And, when my hours of prayer are past,
And this frail tenement decays,
Then may I spend, in heaven, at last,
A never-ending hour of praise.

THOMAS RAFFLES, 1828

12 Vera L. M. The Day of Rest

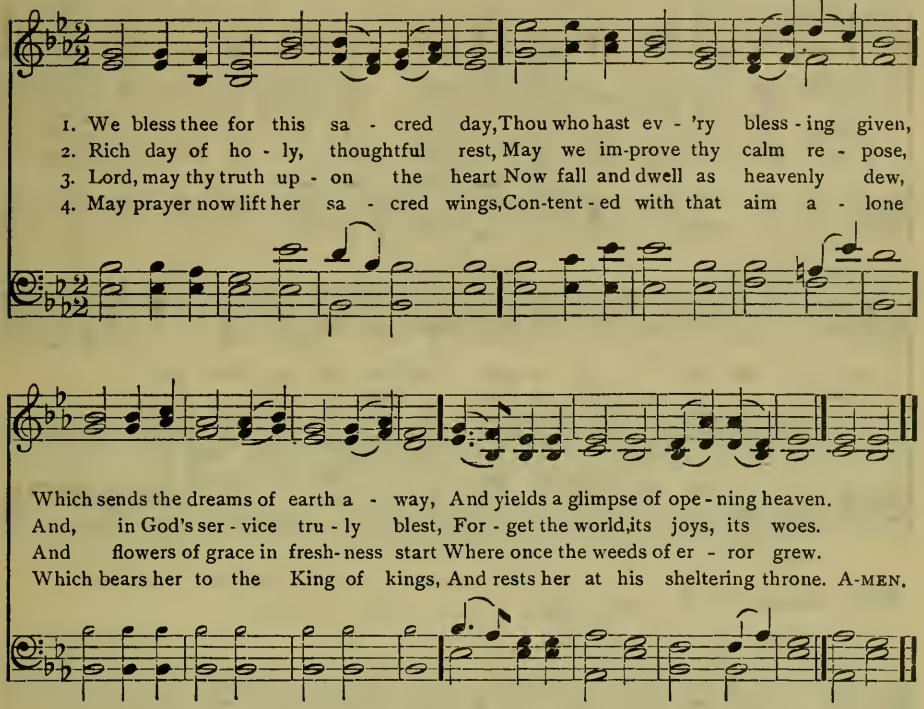
Mrs. GILMAN — JOHN E. GOULD, 1846



1. We bless thee for this sa - cred day, Thou who hast ev - 'ry bless - ing given,
2. Rich day of ho - ly, thoughtful rest, May we im-prove thy calm re - pose,
3. Lord, may thy truth up - on the heart Now fall and dwell as heavenly dew,
4. May prayer now lift her sa - cred wings, Con-tent - ed with that aim a - lone
Which sends the dreams of earth a - way, And yields a glimpse of ope - ning heaven.
And, in God's ser - vice tru - ly blest, For - get the world, its joys, its woes.
And flowers of grace in fresh - ness start Where once the weeds of er - ror grew.
Which bears her to the King of kings, And rests her at his sheltering throne. A-MEN.

13 The Sacrifice of the Heart

1 When, as returns this solemn day,
Man comes to meet his Maker, God,
What rites, what honors shall he pay?
How spread his sovereign name abroad?

2 From marble domes and gilded spires
Shall curling clouds of incense rise,
And gems, and gold, and garlands deck
The costly pomp of sacrifice?

3 Vain, sinful man! creation's Lord
Thy golden offerings well may spare,
But give thy heart, and thou shalt find
Here dwells a God who heareth prayer.

2. I love her gates, I love the road; The church a - dorned with grace,
3. Peace be with - in this sa - cred place, And joy a con - stant guest!
4. My soul shall pray for Zi - on still, While life or breath re - mains;
"In Zi - on let us all ap - pear, And keep the sol - emn day."
Stands like a pal - ace built for God, To show his mild - er face.
With ho - ly gifts and heav'n - ly grace Be her at - tend - ants blest!

16 Day of Rest. C. M.

This is the Day Which the Lord Hath Made

ISAAC WATTS L. V. WHEELER

1. This is the day the Lord hath made; He calls the hours his own;
2. To-day he rose and left the dead, And Sa-tan's em-pire fell;
3. Blest be the Lord who comes to men With mes-sa-ges of grace,
4. Ho-san-na in the high-est strains The church on earth can raise;
Let heav'n re-joice, let earth be glad, And praise sur-round the throne.
To-day the saints his tri-umph spread, And all his won-ders tell.
Who comes, in God his Fa-ther's name To save our sin-ful race.
The high-est heavens in which he reigns Shall give him no-bler praise. AMEN.

Joy of Worship

1 With joy we hail the sacred day,
Which God has called his own;
With joy the summons we obey
To worship at his throne.

2 Spirit of grace, O, deign to dwell
Within thy church below;
Make her in holiness excel,
With pure devotion glow.

3 Let peace within her walls be found,
Let all her sons unite
To spread with grateful zeal around
Her clear and shining light.

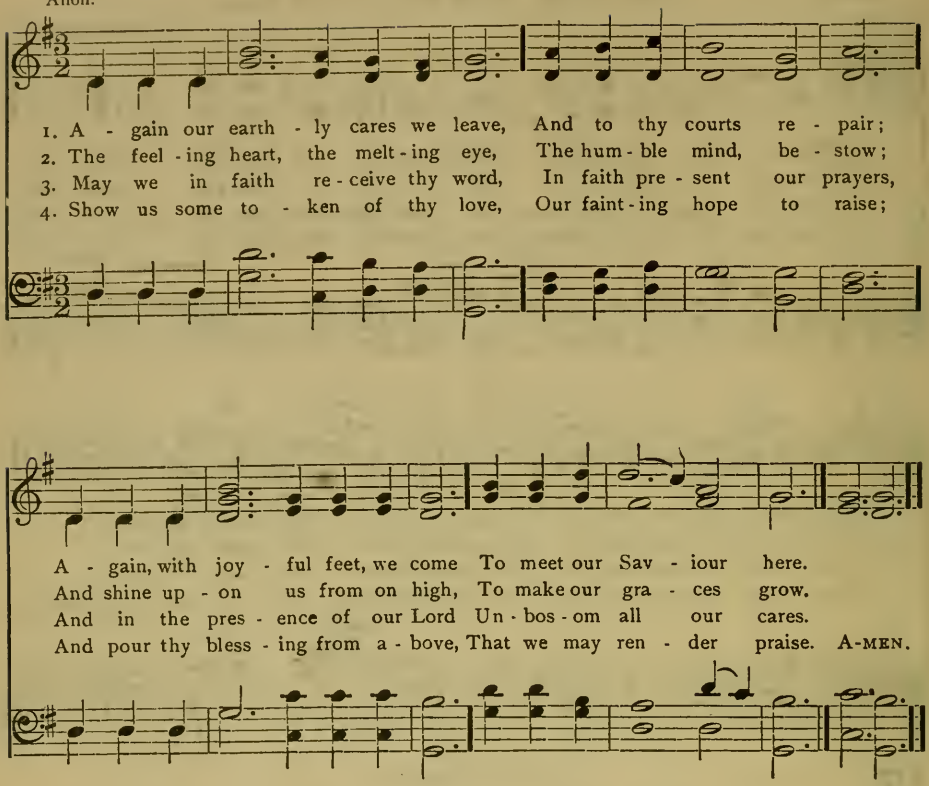
Anon. S. K. WHITING



1. A - gain our earth - ly cares we leave, And to thy courts re - pair;
2. The feel - ing heart, the melt - ing eye, The hum - ble mind, be - stow;
3. May we in faith re - ceive thy word, In faith pre - sent our prayers,
4. Show us some to - ken of thy love, Our faint - ing hope to raise;
A - gain, with joy - ful feet, we come To meet our Sav - iour here.
And shine up - on us from on high, To make our gra - ces grow.
And in the pres - ence of our Lord Un - bos - om all our cares.
And pour thy bless - ing from a - bove, That we may ren - der praise. A-MEN.

19 Early Will I Seek Thee

1 Early, my God, without delay,
I haste to seek thy face;
My thirsty spirit faints away
Without thy cheering grace.

2 I've seen thy glory and thy power
Through all thy temple shine;
My God, repeat that heavenly hour,
That vision so divine.

3 Not life itself, with all its joys,
Can my best passions move,
Or raise so high my cheerful voice,
As thy forgiving love.

4 Thus, till my last expiring day,
I'll bless my God and King,
Thus will I lift my hands to pray,
And tune my heart to sing.

Languid Devotion Lamented

1 Frequent the day of God returns
To shed its quickening beams;
And yet, how slow devotion burns!
How languid are its flames!

2 Increase, O Lord, our faith and hope,
And fit us to ascend
Where the assembly ne'er breaks up,
And Sabbaths never end;—

3 Where we shall breathe in heavenly air,
With heavenly lustre shine,
Before the throne of God appear,
And feast on love divine.

4 There shall we join, and never tire,
To sing immortal lays,
And, with the bright, seraphic choir,
Sound forth Immanuel's praise.

God Present in the Sanctuary

1 My soul, how lovely is the place
To which thy God resorts!
'Tis heaven to see his smiling face,
Though in his earthly courts.

2 There the great monarch of the skies
His saving power displays,
And light breaks in upon our eyes,
With kind and quickening rays.

3 With his rich gifts, the heavenly Dove
Descends and fills the place,
While Christ reveals his wondrous love,
And sheds abroad his grace.

2. Wan-d'ring thoughts and lan - guid pow'rs Come not where de - vo - tion kneels;
3. At the por - tals of thine house, We re - sign our earth - born cares:
Call our err - ing foot-steps home, Let us feel that thou art near.

25 Did Not Our Heart Burn within Us?

1 To thy temple I repair;
Lord, I love to worship there,
When within the veil I meet
Christ before the mercy-seat.

2 While thy glorious praise is sung,
Touch my lips, unloose my tongue,
That my joyful soul may bless
Thee, the Lord, my Righteousness.

3 While thy word is heard with awe,
While we tremble at thy law,
Let thy gospel's wondrous love
Every doubt and fear remove.

4 From thy house when we return,
Let our hearts within us burn;
That at evening we may say,—
"We have walked with God today."

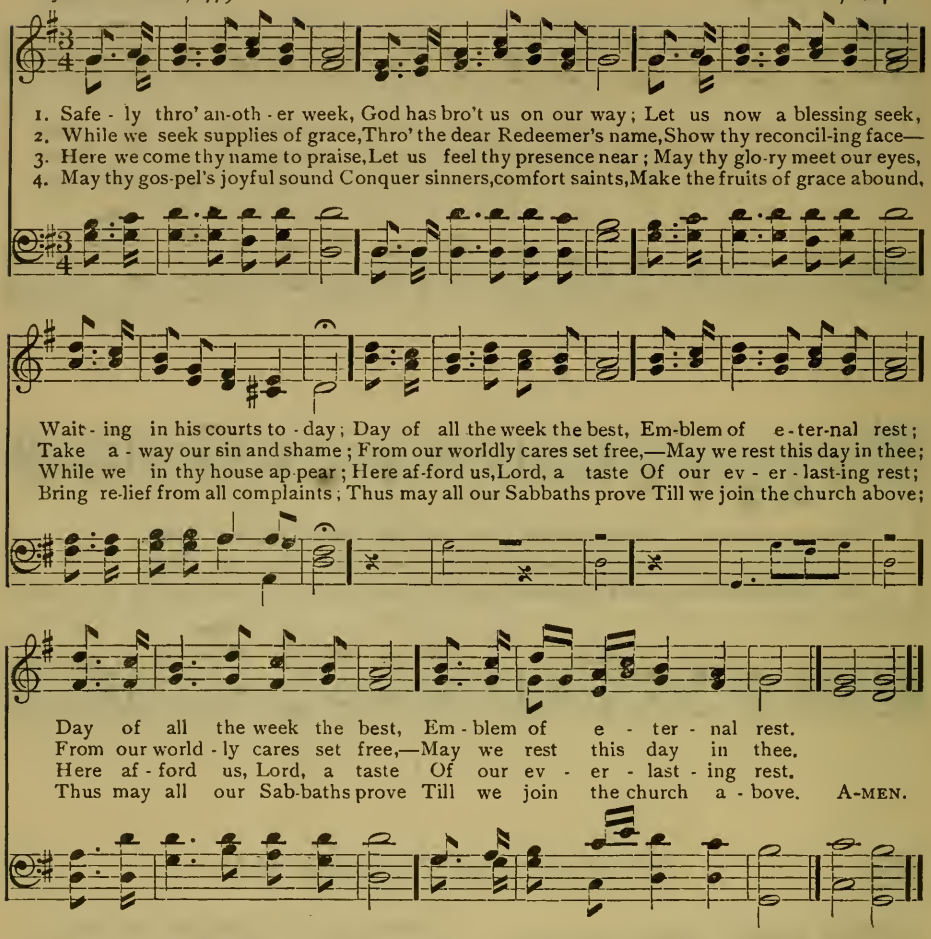
JOHN NEWTON, 1779 LOWELL MASON, 1824



1. Safe - ly thro' an-oth - er week, God has bro't us on our way; Let us now a blessing seek,
2. While we seek supplies of grace, Thro' the dear Redeemer's name, Show thy reconcil-ing face—

27 The Accepted Offering

1 Lord, what offering shall we bring,
At thine altars, when we bow?
Hearts, the pure, unsullied spring
Whence the kind affections flow;
Soft compassion's feeling soul
By the melting eye expressed;
Sympathy, at whose control
Sorrow leaves the wounded breast.

2 Willing hands to lead the blind;
Bind the wounded, feed the poor;
Love, embracing all our kind;
Charity, with liberal store.
Teach us, O thou heavenly King,
Thus to show our grateful mind,
Thus the accepted offering bring—
Love to thee and all mankind.

Feast of Love

1 Come, and let us sweetly join
God to praise in hymns divine;
Give we all, with one accord,
Glory to our common Lord.

Sing as in the ancient days;
Taste e'en now the joys above,
Find the heaven of mutual love.

We are met in thy great name;
In the midst do thou appear,
Manifest thy presence here.

Make us all for glory meet,—
Meet to appear before thy sight,
Partners of the saints in light.

A Day in Thy Courts

1 Lord of the worlds above,
How pleasant and how fair
The dwellings of thy love,
Thine earthly temples are!
To thine abode my heart aspires,
With warm desires to see my God.

2 O, happy souls that pray
Where God appoints to hear!
O, happy men that pay
Their constant service there!
They praise thee still; and happy they
Who love the way to Zion's hill.

3 They go from strength to strength
Through this dark vale of tears,
Till each arrives at length,
Till each in heaven appears.
O, glorious seat, when God our King
Shall thither bring our willing feet.

Spirit of the Psalms

Even Thine Altars, O Lord of Hosts

1 How charming is the place
Where my Redeemer, God,
Unveils the beauties of his face,
And sheds his love abroad!

2 Not the fair palaces,
To which the great resort,
Are once to be compared with this,
Where Jesus holds his courts.

3 Here on the mercy-seat,
With radiant glory crowned,
Our joyful eyes behold him sit,
And smile on all around.

4 Give me, O Lord, a place
Within thy blest abode,
Among the children of thy grace,
The servants of my God.

Praising God for Mercies

1 O bless the Lord, my soul!
Let all within me join,
And aid my tongue to bless his name,
Whose favors are divine.

2 O bless the Lord, my soul!
Nor let his mercies lie
Forgotten in unthankfulness,
And without praises die.

3 'Tis he forgives thy sins;
'Tis he relieves thy pain;
'Tis he that heals thy sicknesses,
And makes thee young again.

4 He crowns thy life with love,
When ransomed from the grave;
He that redeemed my soul from hell,
Hath sovereign power to save.

ISAAC WATTS, 1719 — German Melody

2. Sing how E - ter - nal Love, His chief be - lov - ed chose,

Heavenly Joy on Earth

1 Come we that love the Lord,
And let our joys be known;
Join in a song with sweet accord,
And thus surround the throne.

2 The sorrows of the mind
Be banished from the place;
Religion never was designed
To make our pleasures less.

3 The hill of Zion yields
A thousand sacred sweets,
Before we reach the heavenly fields
Or walk the golden streets.

4 Then let our songs abound,
And every tear be dry;
We're marching thro' Immanuel's ground
To fairer worlds on high.

And bless his works and bless his word:
Thy works of grace, how bright they shine;
How deep thy counsels, how divine!

3 And I shall share a glorious part,
When grace hath well refined my heart,
And fresh supplies of joy are shed,
Like holy oil, to cheer my head.

All I desired or wished below,
And every power find sweet employ

A Joyful Song

1 Sing to the Lord a joyful song;
Lift up your hearts, your voices raise:
To us his gracious gifts belong,
To him our songs of love and praise.

2 For life and love, for rest and food,
For daily help and nightly care,
Sing to the Lord, for he is good,
And praise his name, for it is fair:—

3 For strength to those who on him wait,
His truth to prove, his will to do,
Praise ye our God, for he is great,
Trust in his name, for it is true;—

4 For life below, with all its bliss,
And for that life, more pure and high,
That inner life, which over this
Shall ever shine, and never die.

The Lord of Life

1 Lord of all being, throned afar,
Thy glory flames from sun and star;
Center and soul of every sphere,
Yet to each loving heart how near!

2 Sun of our life, thy quickening ray
Sheds on our path the glow of day:
Star of our hope, thy softened light
Cheers the long watches of the night.

3 Our midnight is thy smile withdrawn;
Our noontide is thy gracious dawn;
Our rainbow arch thy mercy's sign:
All, save the clouds of sin, are thine.

4 Grant us thy truth to make us free,
And kindling hearts that burn for thee,
Till all thy living altars claim
One holy light, one heavenly flame.

Universal Praise

1 Ye nations round the earth, rejoice
Before the Lord, your sovereign King;
Serve him with cheerful heart and voice;
With all your tongues his glory sing.

2 The Lord is God; 'tis he alone
Doth life, and breath, and being give;
We are his work, and not our own —
The sheep that on his pastures live.

3 Enter his gates with songs of joy,
With praises to his courts repair,
And make it your divine employ
To pay your thanks and honors there.

4 The Lord is good; the Lord is kind;
Great is his grace, his mercy sure;
And all the race of man shall find
His truth from age to age endure.

53 Serve the Lord with Gladness

1 Before Jehovah's awful throne,
Ye nations bow with sacred joy;
Know that the Lord is God alone;
He can create, and he destroy.

2 His sovereign power, without our aid,
Made us of clay, and formed us men;
And, when like wandering sheep we strayed,
He brought us to his fold again.

3 We'll crowd thy gates, with thankful songs,
High as the heaven our voices raise;
And earth, with her ten thousand tongues,
Shall fill thy courts with sounding praise.

4 Wide as the world is thy command;
Vast as eternity thy love;
Firm as a rock thy truth shall stand,
When rolling years shall cease to move.

Till suns shall rise and set no more.

Lowly Praise

1 Lord, in heaven, thy dwelling-place,
Hear the praises of our race,
And, while hearing, let thy grace
Dews of sweet forgiveness pour;

2 While we know, benignant King,
That the praises which we bring
Are a worthless offering
Till thy blessing makes it more.

3 More of truth and more of might,
More of love and more of light,
More of reason and of right,
From thy pardoning grace be given.

4 It can make the humblest song
Sweet, acceptable, and strong
As the strains the angels' throng
Pour around the throne of heaven.

Supplication

1 Word, whose creative thrill
Wakes in all nature still Life, light, and bloom!
Come with resistless ray,
Chase all our clouds away,
And with thy heavenly day
All souls illume!

2 Spirit, in whom we live!
Thou who dost yearn to give
All hearts thy rest!
When earthly joys take flight,
Cheer thou the earthly night,
And in the morning light
Still be our guest!

3 And when th' eternal morn,
From death's deep night shades born,
Our eyes shall see,
Father, thy word, thy breath,
Thy Christ who conquereth
Sorrow and sin and death,
Our trust shall be!

1 O for a shout of joy
High as the theme we sing!
To this divine employ
Your hearts and voices bring;
Sound, sound through all the earth abroad
The love, th' eternal love, of God.

2 Unnumbered myriads stand
Of seraphs bright and fair;
Or bow at his right hand,
And pay their homage there,
But strive in vain, with loudest chord,
To sound the wondrous love of God.

3 Yet sinners saved by grace,
In songs of lower key,
In every age and place,
Have sung the mystery,—
Have told in strains of sweet accord,
Thy love, thy sovereign love, O Lord.

4 Though earth and hell assail,
And doubts and fears arise,
The weakest shall prevail,
And grasp the heavenly prize,
And through an endless age record
The love, th' unchanging love, of God.

Morning Prayer for Direction

1 God of the morning, at whose voice
The cheerful sun makes haste to rise,
And like a giant doth rejoice
To run his journey through the skies;

2 O, like the sun may I fulfil
Th' appointed duties of the day;
With ready mind and active will
March on, and keep my heavenly way.

3 Lord, thy commands are clean and pure,
Enlightening our beclouded eyes,
Thy threatenings just, thy promise sure;
Thy gospel makes the simple wise.

4 Give me thy counsel for my guide,
And then receive me to thy bliss;
All my desires and hopes beside
Are faint and cold, compared with this.

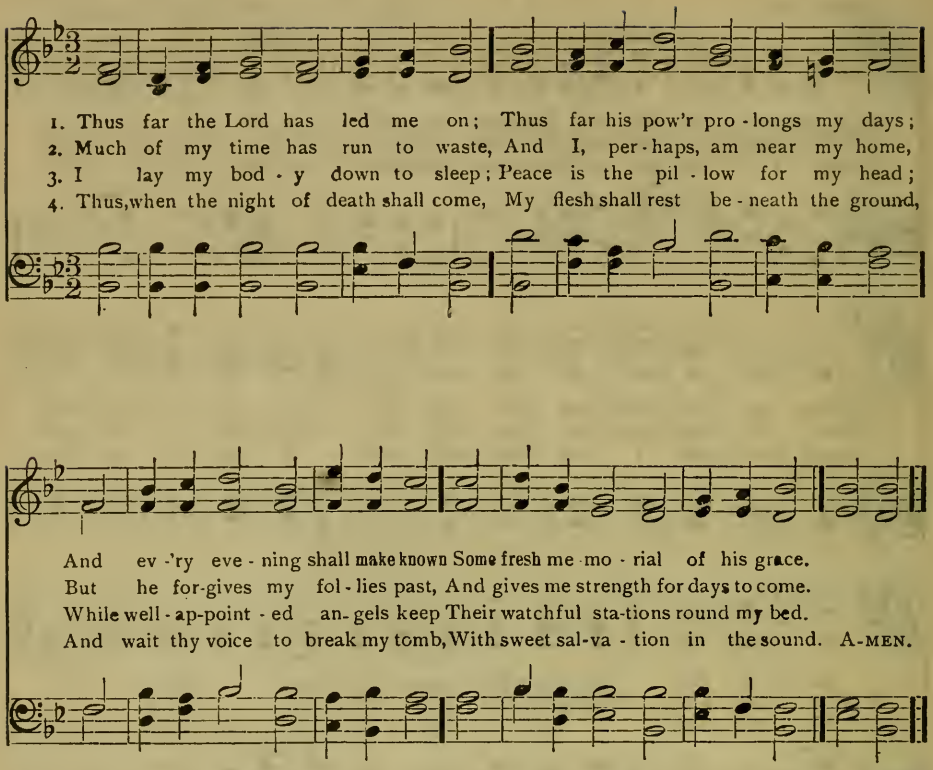
Evening Hymn

ISAAC WATTS, 1709 — LOWELL MASON, 1830



1. Thus far the Lord has led me on; Thus far his pow'r pro-longs my days;
2. Much of my time has run to waste, And I, per-haps, am near my home,
3. I lay my bod-y down to sleep; Peace is the pil-low for my head;
4. Thus, when the night of death shall come, My flesh shall rest be-neath the ground,
And ev-'ry eve-ning shall make known Some fresh me-mo-rial of his grace.
But he for-gives my fol-lies past, And gives me strength for days to come.
While well-ap-point-ed an-gels keep Their watchful sta-tions round my bed.
And wait thy voice to break my tomb, With sweet sal-va-tion in the sound. A-MEN.

The Close of the Sabbath

1 Sweet is the light of Sabbath eve,
And soft the sunbeams lingering there;
For these blest hours the world I leave,
Wafted on wings of faith and prayer.

2 The time how lovely and how still!
Peace shines and smiles on all below;
The plain, the stream, the wood, the hill,
All fair with evening's setting glow.

3 Season of rest — the tranquil soul
Feels the sweet calm, and melts in love;
And, while these sacred moments roll,
Faith sees a smiling heaven above.

4 Nor will our days of toil be long;
Our pilgrimage will soon be trod;
And we shall join the ceaseless song,
The endless Sabbath of our God.

77 Let My Prayer be as Incense

1 My God, accept my early vows,
Like morning incense in thy house;
And let my nightly worship rise
Sweet as the evening sacrifice.

2 Watch o'er my lips, and guard them, Lord,
From every rash and heedless word,
Nor let my feet incline to tread
The guilty path where sinners lead.

3 O, may the righteous, when I stray,
Smite and reprove my wandering way,
Their gentle words, like ointment shed,
Shall never bruise, but cheer my head.

4 When I behold them pressed with grief,
I'll cry to Heaven for their relief,
And by my warm petitions prove
How much I prize their faithful love.

78 Close of Worship

1 Ere to the world again we go,
Its pleasures, cares, and idle show,
Thy grace, once more, O God, we crave,
From folly and from sin to save.

2 May the great truths we here have heard,
The lessons of thy holy word—
Dwell in our inmost bosoms deep,
And all our souls from error keep.

3 Oh! may the influence of this day
Long as our memory with us stay,
And as a constant guardian prove,
To guide us to our home above.

Evening Reflections

1 The day is past and gone,
The evening shades appear;
O, may we all remember well
The night of death draws near.

2 Lord, keep us safe this night,
Secure from all our fears;
May angels guard us while we sleep,
Till morning light appears.

3 And if we early rise,
And view th' unwearied sun,
May we set out to win the prize,
And after glory run.

4 And when our days are past,
And we from time remove,
O, may we in thy bosom rest,
The bosom of thy love.

Blessing Sought

1 Gracious Saviour, thus before thee,
With our varied want and care;
For a blessing we implore thee,
Listen to our evening prayer.

2 By thy favor safely living,
With a grateful heart we raise
Songs of jubilant thanksgiving;
Listen to our evening praise.

3 Thro' the day, Lord, thou hast given
Strength sufficient for our need;
Cheered us with sweet hopes of heaven,
Helped and comforted indeed.

4 Lord, we thank thee, and adore thee,
For the solace of thy love;
And rejoicing thus before thee,
Wait thy blessing from above!

Vesper Hymn

1 Hark! the vesper hymn is stealing
O'er the waters soft and clear;
Nearer yet, and nearer pealing,
Now it bursts upon the ear!
Jubilate! Amen!
Farther now, now farther stealing,
Soft it fades upon the ear.

2 Now like moonlight waves retreating
To the shore, it dies along;
Now like angry surges meeting,
Breathes the mingled tide of song,
Jubilate! Amen!
Hush! again like waves retreating
To the shore, it dies along.

Evening Worship

Sir JOHN BOWRING — Arr. from HAYDN, by Dr. MASON

1. How shall we praise thee, Lord of light! How shall we all thy love de-clare!
The earth is veiled in shades of night, But heav'n is o-pen to our pray'r,
2. We would a-dore thee, God sub-lime! Whose power and wis-dom, love and grace
Are great-er than the round of time, And wid-er than the bounds of space.
3. But thou art pres-ent with us here, As in thy glit-t'ring high do-main;
And grate-ful hearts and hum-ble fear Can nev-er seek thy face in vain.
That heav'n so bright with stars and suns—That glorious heav'n which has no bound,
O, how shall thought ex-pres-sion find, All lost in thine im-men-si-ty!
Help us to praise thee, Lord of light! Help us thy bound-less love de-clare;
Where the full tide of be-ing runs, And life and beau-ty glow a-round.
How shall we see thee, glo-rious Mind, A-mid thy dread in-fin-i-ty!

Evening Hymn

1 O Holy Father! 'mid the calm
And stillness of this evening hour,
We would lift up our solemn psalm,
To praise thy goodness and thy power:
For over us, and over all,
Thy tender mercies still extend,
Nor vainly shall thy children call
On thee, our Father and our Friend!

2 Kept by thy goodness through the day,
Thanksgiving to thy name we pour!
Night o'er us, with its stars,— we pray
Thy love, to guard us evermore!
In grief, console; in gladness, bless;
In darkness, guide; in sickness, cheer;
Till, perfected in righteousness,
Before thy throne our souls appear!

God Incomprehensible

1 Great God, in vain man's narrow view
Attempts to look thy nature through!
Our laboring powers with reverence own
Thy glories never can be known.

2 Not the high seraph's mighty thought,
Who countless years his God has sought,
Such wondrous height or depth can find,
Or fully trace thy boundless mind.

3 And yet thy kindness deigns to show
Enough for mortal minds to know;
While wisdom, goodness, power divine,
Thro' all thy works and conduct shine.

4 O, may our souls with rapture trace
Thy works of nature and of grace,
Explore thy sacred truth, and still
Press on to know and do thy will.

1 Come, happy souls, approach your God
With new, melodious songs;
Come, render to almighty grace
The tribute of your tongues.

2 So strange, so boundless was the love
That pitied dying men,
The Father sent his only son
To give them life again.

3 Yes, all was merciful and mild,
And wrath forsook the throne,
When Christ on the kind errand came,
And brought salvation down.

4 See, dearest Lord, our willing souls
Accept thine offered grace;
We bless the great Redeemer's love,

Every Good Gift is from Above

1 Great God, let all my tuneful powers
Awake, and sing thy mighty name:
Thy hand revolves my circling hours—
Thy hand, from whence my being came.

2 Seasons and moons, still rolling round
In beauteous order, speak thy praise;
And years, with smiling mercy crowned;
To thee successive honors raise.

3 My life, my health, my friends I owe,
All to thy vast, unbounded love;
Ten thousand precious gifts below,
And hope of nobler joys above.

4 Thus will I sing till nature cease,
Till sense and language are no more;
And, after death, thy boundless grace
Through everlasting years adore.

How firm his truth! how large his grace!

The daily guilt of those he loves.

2 For the love of God is broader
Than the measure of man's mind;
And the heart of the Eternal
Is most wonderfully kind.
But we make his love too narrow
By false limits of our own;
And we magnify his strictness
With a zeal he will not own.— REF.

3 Pining souls! come nearer Jesus;
Come, but come not doubting thus,
Come with faith that trusts more freely
His great tenderness for us.
If our love were but more simple
We should take him at his word;
And our lives would be all sunshine
In the sweetness of our Lord. — REF.

1 All as God wills! who wisely heeds
To give or to withhold,
And knoweth more of all my needs
Than all my prayers have told.

2 Enough, that blessings undeserved
Have marked my erring track;
That, wheresoe'er my feet have swerved,
Thy chastening turned me back;

3 That death seems but a covered way
Which opens into light,
Wherein no blinded child can stray
Beyond the Father's sight.

4 No longer forward or behind
I look, in hope or fear,
But grateful take the good I find,
God's blessing now and here.

The Love of God

1 Come, ye that know and fear the Lord,
And raise your souls above;
Let every heart and voice accord,
To sing that "God is love."

2 His precious truth his word declares,
And all his mercies prove;
Jesus, the gift of gifts appears,
To show that "God is love."

3 Behold his patience, bearing long
With those who from him rove;
'Till mighty grace their hearts subdues
To teach them — "God is love."

4 Oh, may we all while here below,
This best of blessings prove;
Till warmer hearts, in brighter worlds,
Shall shout that "God is love."

Roll o'er the heavenly plains,
And seraphs find employ
For their sublimest strains.
Some new delight in heaven is known,
Loud sound the harps around the throne.

2 Hark! hark! the sound draws nigh;
The joyful hosts descend;
Jesus forsakes the sky;
To earth his footsteps bend:
He comes to bless our fallen race;
He comes with messages of grace.

3 Strike, strike the harps again
To great Immanuel's name;
Arise, ye sons of men,
And all his grace proclaim:
Angels and men, wake every string;
'Tis Christ the Saviour's praise we sing.

The Birth-song of Christ

1 Calm on the listening ear of night
Come heaven's melodious strains,
Where wild Judea stretches far
Her silver-mantled plains.

2 Celestial choirs from courts above
Shed sacred glories there;
And angels with their sparkling lyres
Make music on the air.

3 The answering hills of Palestine
Send back the glad reply;
And greet from all their holy heights
The Dayspring from on high.

4 "Glory to God!" the sounding skies
Loud with their anthems ring;
"Peace to the earth, good-will to men,
From heaven's eternal King."

179 Teleman's Chant 7s. Joy in the Lord

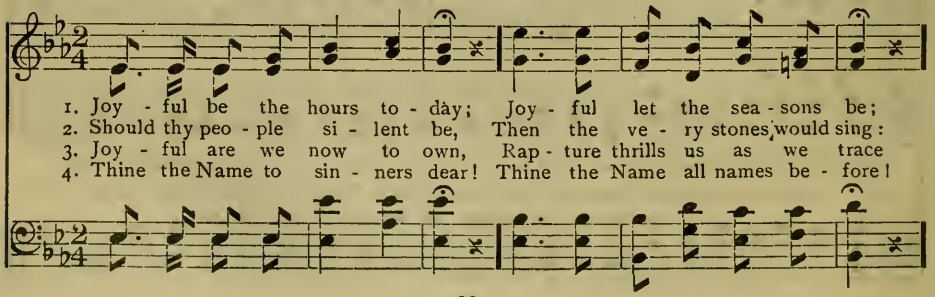
THOMAS KELLY — CH. ZEUNER



1. Joy - ful be the hours to - day; Joy - ful let the sea - sons be;
2. Should thy peo - ple si - lent be, Then the ve - ry stones would sing:
3. Joy - ful are we now to own, Rap - ture thrills us as we trace
4. Thine the Name to sin - ners dear! Thine the Name all names be - fore!

180 Luton L. M. Christ Dying, Rising, and Reigning

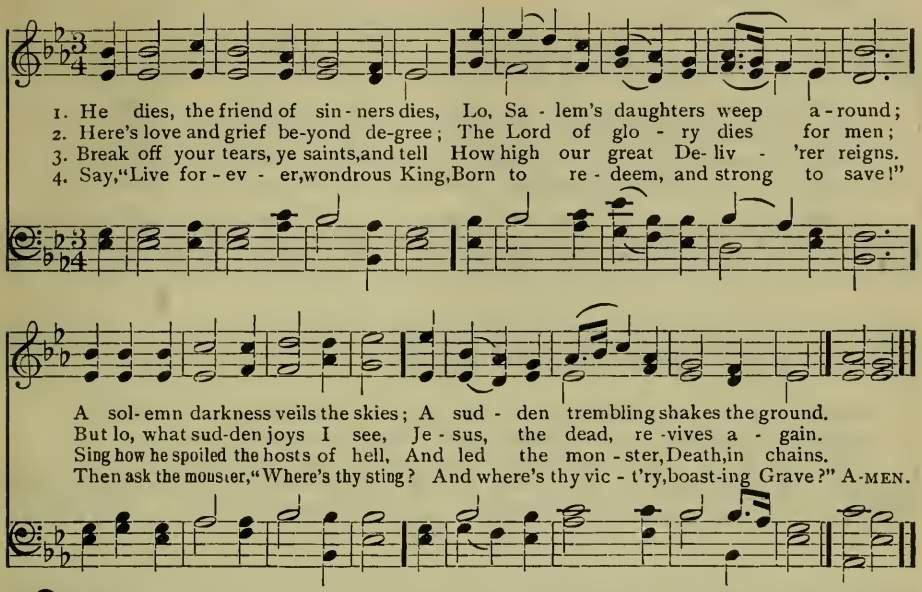
ISAAC WATTS



1. He dies, the friend of sin - ners dies, Lo, Sa - lem's daughters weep a - round;
2. Here's love and grief be-yond de-gree; The Lord of glo - ry dies for men;
3. Break off your tears, ye saints, and tell How high our great De- liv - 'rer reigns.
4. Say, "Live for - ev - er, wondrous King, Born to re - deem, and strong to save!"
A sol- emn darkness veils the skies; A sud - den trembling shakes the ground.
But lo, what sud-den joys I see, Je - sus, the dead, re -vives a - gain.
Sing how he spoiled the hosts of hell, And led the mon - ster, Death, in chains.
Then ask the monster, "Where's thy sting? And where's thy vic - t'ry, boast-ing Grave?" A-MEN.

181 The King of Glory

1 Our Lord is risen from the dead;
Our Jesus is gone up on high;
Lift up your heads, ye heavenly gates,
Ye everlasting doors, give way.

2 Loose all your bars of massy light,
And wide unfold th' ethereal scene:
He claims these mansions as his right,
Receive the King of glory in.

3 Who is the King of glory — who?
The Lord, who all our foes o'ercame;
Who sin, and death, and hell o'erthrew;
And Jesus is the Conqueror's name.

4 Lo, his triumphal chariot waits,
And angels chant the solemn lay;
Lift up your heads, ye heavenly gates;
Ye everlasting doors, give way.

1 Abide with us; the evening shades
Begin already to prevail;
And, as the lingering twilight fades,
Dark clouds along the horizon sail.

2 Abide with us; and still unfold
Thy sacred, thy prophetic lore;
What wondrous things of Jesus told!
Stranger, we thirst, we pant for more.

3 Abide with us; our hearts are cold;
We thought that Israel he'd restore;
But sweet the truths thy lips have told,
And, stranger, we complain no more.

4 Abide with us: amazed they cry,
As, suddenly, while breaking bread,
Their own lost Jesus meets their eye,
With radiant glory on his head.

192 The Precious Name

1 How sweet the name of Jesus sounds
In a believer's ear!
It soothes his sorrows, heals his wounds,
And drives away his fear.

2 It makes the wounded spirit whole,
And calms the troubled breast;
'Tis manna to the hungry soul,
And to the weary rest.

3 Weak is the effort of my heart,
And cold my warmest thought;
But when I see thee as thou art,
I'll praise thee as I ought.

4 Till then I would thy love proclaim,
With every fleeting breath;
And may the music of thy name,
Refresh my soul in death.

Salvation by Christ

1 Salvation! — oh, the joyful sound!
'Tis pleasure to our ears;
A sovereign balm for every wound,
A cordial for our fears.

2 Buried in sorrow and in sin,
At hell's dark door we lay; —
But we arise by grace divine,
To see a heavenly day.

3 Salvation! — let the echo fly
The spacious earth around;
While all the armies of the sky
Conspire to raise the sound.

Thus I wait for his returning,
Singing all the way to heaven;

Such the tranquil song of even.

210 Christ the True Friend

1 One there is, above all others,
Well deserves the name of Friend;
His is love beyond a brother's—
Costly, free, and knows no end.
Which of all our friends, to save us,
Could or would have shed his blood?
But our Jesus died to have us
Reconciled in him to God.

2 When he lived on earth abasèd,
Friend of Sinners was his name;
Now, above all glory raisèd,
He rejoices in the same.
O for grace our hearts to soften!
Teach us, Lord, at length to love;
We, alas! forget too often
What a Friend we have above.

Praising Christ for His Grace

1 My Saviour, my almighty Friend;
When I begin thy praise,
Where will the growing numbers end:
The numbers of thy grace?

2 Thou art my everlasting trust;
Thy goodness I adore;
And since I knew thy graces first,
I speak thy glories more.

3 My feet shall travel all the length
Of the celestial road,
And march with courage in thy strength
To see my Father, God.

4 How will my lips rejoice to tell
The victories of my King!
My soul redeemed from sin and hell,
Shall thy salvation sing.

The Unsearchable Riches of Christ

1 To our Redeemer's glorious name
Awake the sacred song;
O, may his love—immortal flame—
Tune every heart and tongue.

2 His love what mortal tho't can reach?
What mortal tongue display?
Imagination's utmost stretch
In wonder dies away.

3 Dear Lord, while we, adoring, pay
Our humble thanks to thee,
May every heart with rapture say,
"The Saviour died for me."

4 O, may the sweet, the blissful theme
Fill every heart and tongue,
Till strangers love thy charming name,
And join the sacred song.

'Tis music to mine ear,
Fain would I sound it out so loud,
That earth and heaven should hear.

2 Yes, thou art precious to my soul,
My Transport and my Trust;
Jewels to thee are gaudy toys,

Nor to mine eyes is life so dear,
Nor friendship half so sweet.

And sheds its fragrance there;
The noblest balm of all its wounds,
The cordial of its care.

The Saviour's Mission

1 O, let your mingling voices rise
In grateful rapture to the skies,
And hail a Saviour's birth:
Let songs of joy the day proclaim
When Jesus all-triumphant came
To bless the sons of earth!

2 He came to bid the weary rest,
To heal the sinner's wounded breast,
To bind the broken heart;
To spread the light of truth around,
And to the world's remotest bound
The heavenly gift impart.

3 He came our trembling souls to save
From sin, from sorrow, and the grave,
And chase our fears away;
Victorious o'er death and time,
To lead us to a happier clime,
Where reigns eternal day.

2 Blest Book, in thee my eyes discern
The image of my absent Lord;
From thine instructive page I learn
The joys his presence will afford.

And thus partake of joys above.

Comfort from the Bible

1 Lord, I have made thy word my choice,
My lasting heritage;
There shall my noblest powers rejoice,
My warmest thoughts engage.

2 I'll read the histories of thy love,
And keep thy laws in sight,
While through the promises I rove
With ever fresh delight.

Where springs of life arise,
Seeds of immortal bliss are sown,
And hidden glory lies.

It makes our sorrows blest,
Our fairest hope beyond the grave,
And our eternal rest.

Delight in the Scriptures

1 Father of mercies, in thy word
What endless glory shines!
Forever be thy name adored
For these celestial lines.

2 'Tis here the tree of knowledge grows,
And yields a free repast;
Here purer sweets than nature knows
Invite the longing taste.

3 Here my Redeemer's welcome voice
Spreads heavenly peace around;
And life and everlasting joys
Attend the blissful sound.

My ever dear delight;
And still new beauties may I see,

And seek thy Father's face!
Those new desires, which in thee burn,

He sees thy softened spirit mourn,
When no one else is nigh.

How freely he'll forgive.

261 The Spirit's Call

1 Say, sinner! hath a voice within
Oft whispered to thy secret soul,
Urged thee to leave the ways of sin,
And yield thy heart to God's control?

2 Sinner! it was a heavenly voice,—
It was the Spirit's gracious call;
It bade thee make the better choice,
And haste to seek in Christ thine all.

3 God's Spirit will not always strive
With hardened, self-destroying man;
Ye who persist his love to grieve,
May never hear his voice again.

4 Sinner! perhaps, this very day,
Thy last accepted time may be;
Oh! shouldst thou grieve him now away,
Then hope may never beam on thee.

Escape for Thy Life

1 Haste, traveler, haste; the night comes on,
And many a shining hour is gone;
The storm is gathering in the west,
And thou far off from home and rest.

2 The rising tempest sweeps the sky;
The rains descend, the winds are high;
The waters swell, and death and fear
Beset thy path — no refuge near.

3 Haste, while a shelter you may gain,
A covert from the wind and rain,
A hiding-place, a rest, a home,
A refuge from the wrath to come.

4 Then linger not in all the plain;
Flee for thy life — the mountain gain;
Look not behind — make no delay:
O, speed thee, speed thee on thy way.

1 Brother, hast thou wandered far
From thy Father's happy home,
With thyself and God at war ?
Turn thee, brother, homeward come.

Commune with Your Heart

The Stubborn Heart

1 O, for a glance of heavenly day,
To take this stubborn heart away;
And thaw, with beams of love divine,
This heart, this frozen heart of mine.

2 The rocks can rend; the earth can quake;
The seas can roar; the mountains shake:
Of feeling, all things show some sign
But this unfeeling heart of mine.

3 To hear the sorrows thou hast felt,
O Lord, an adamant would melt:
But I can read each moving line,
And nothing moves this heart of mine.

4 But power divine can do the deed;
And, Lord, that power I greatly need;
Thy Spirit can from dross refine,
And melt and change this heart of mine.

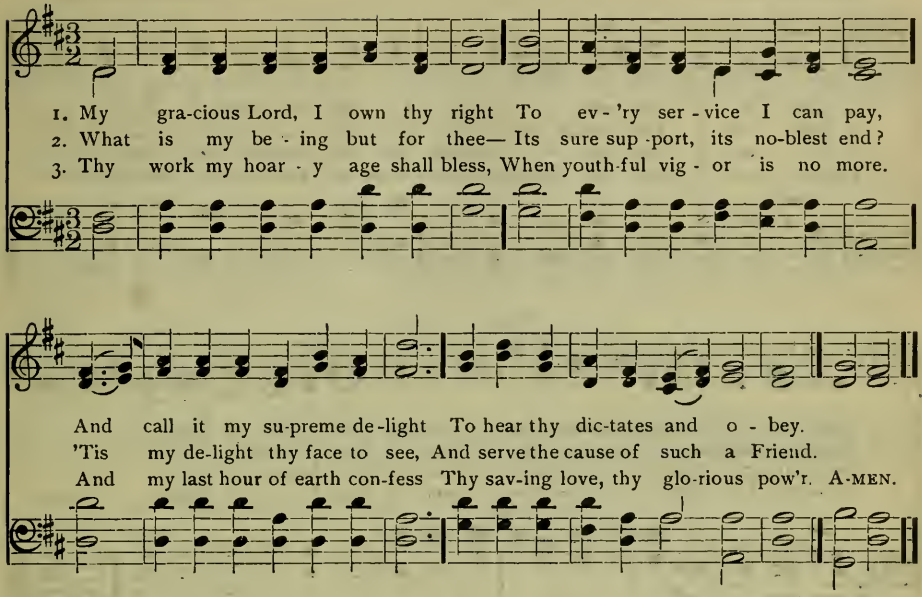
Consecration to God

PHILIP DODDRIDGE — Arr. fr. T.



1. My gra-cious Lord, I own thy right To ev-'ry ser-vice I can pay,
2. What is my be-ing but for thee— Its sure sup-port, its no-blest end?
3. Thy work my hoar-y age shall bless, When youth-ful vig-or is no more.
And call it my su-preme de-light To hear thy dic-tates and o-bey.
'Tis my de-light thy face to see, And serve the cause of such a Friend.
And my last hour of earth con-fess Thy sav-ing love, thy glo-rious pow'r. A-MEN.

Be Merciful

1 With broken heart and contrite sigh,
A trembling sinner, Lord, I cry:
Thy pardoning grace is rich and free;
O God, be merciful to me!

2 I smite upon my troubled breast,
With deep and conscious guilt oppressed,
Christ and his cross my only plea:
O God, be merciful to me!

3 Far off I stand with tearful eyes,
Nor dare uplift them to the skies;
But thou dost all my anguish see:
O God, be merciful to me!

4 And when redeemed from sin and hell,
With all the ransomed throng I dwell,
My raptured song shall ever be,
God hath been merciful to me!

Psalm 51

1 Show pity, Lord; O Lord, forgive;
Let a repenting rebel live;
Are not thy mercies large and free?
May not a sinner trust in thee?

2 My crimes, though great, do not surpass
The power and glory of thy grace;
Great God, thy nature hath no bound,
So let thy pardoning love be found.

3 Oh, wash my soul from every sin,
And make my guilty conscience clean;
Here on my heart the burden lies,
And past offences pain mine eyes.

4 Yet save a trembling sinner, Lord,
Whose hope, still hovering round thy word,
Would light on some sweet promise there,
Some sure support against despair.

Power of Faith

1 Faith adds new charms to earthly bliss,
And saves us from its snares;
It yields support in all our toils,
And softens all our cares.
The wounded conscience knows its power,
The healing balm to give;
That balm the saddest heart can cheer,
And make the dying live.

2 Wide it unveils the heavenly world,
Where endless pleasures reign;
It bids us seek our portion there,
Nor bids us seek in vain.
There, still unshaken, would we rest,
Till this frail body dies,
And then, on faith's triumphant wing,
To endless glory rise.

Faith without Works is Dead

1 As body when the soul has fled,
As barren trees decayed and dead,
Is faith — a hopeless, lifeless thing,
If not of righteous deeds the spring.

2 One cup of healing oil and wine,
One tear-drop shed on mercy's shrine,
Is thrice more grateful, Lord, to thee,
Than lifted eye or bended knee.

3 In true and heaven-born faith, we trace
The source of every Christian grace;
Within the pious heart it plays—
A living fount of joy and praise.

4 Kind deeds of peace and love betray
Where'er the stream has found its way;
But where these spring not rich and fair,
The stream has never wandered there.

Thine hand unseen upholds my ways;
I lean upon thy staff and rod.

3 Thee, in the watches of the night,
When I remember on my bed,
Thy presence makes the darkness light,
Thy guardian wings are round my head.

4 Better than life itself thy love,
Dearer than all beside to me;
For whom have I in heaven above,
Or what on earth, compared with thee?

5 Praise with my heart, my mind, my voice,
For all thy mercy, I will give;
My soul shall still in God rejoice;
My tongue shall bless thee while I live.

1 He sendeth sun, he sendeth shower;
Alike they're needful for the flower;
And joys and tears alike are sent
To give the soul fit nourishment:
As comes to me or cloud or sun,
Father, thy will, not mine, be done.

Creator, I would ever be
A trusting, loving child to thee.

324 Our Salvation Near

1 Your harps, ye trembling saints,
Down from the willows take:
Loud to the praise of love divine
Bid every string awake.

2 Though in a foreign land,
We are not far from home;
And nearer to our house above
We every moment come.

3 His grace will to the end
Stronger and brighter shine;
Nor present things, nor things to come,
Shall quench the spark divine.

4 When we in darkness walk,
Nor feel the heavenly flame,
Then is the time to trust our God,
And rest upon his name.

5 Soon shall our doubts and fears
Subside at his control;
His loving-kindness shall break through
The midnight of the soul.

6 Blest is the man, O Lord,
Who stays himself on thee;
Who waits for thy salvation, Lord,
Shall thy salvation see.

A Prayer for Faith

1 I ask not wealth, but power to take
And use the things I have aright;
Not years, but wisdom that shall make
My life a profit and delight.

2 I ask not that for me the plan
Of good and ill be set aside,
But that the common lot of man
Be nobly borne and glorified.

3 I know I may not always keep
My steps in places green and sweet,
Nor find the pathway of the deep
A path of safety to my feet;

4 But pray that, when the tempest's breath
Shall fiercely sweep my way about,
I make not shipwreck of my faith
In the unfathomed sea of doubt.

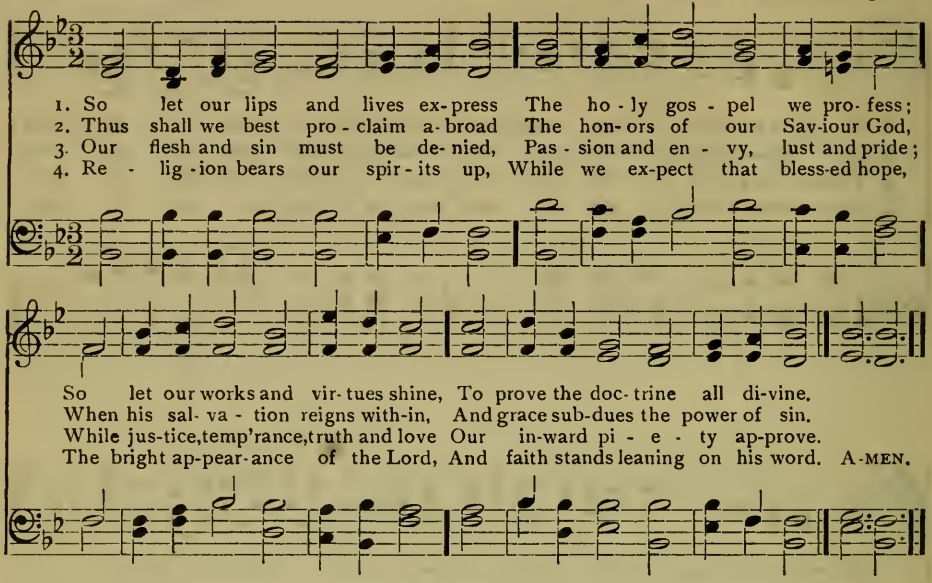
Practical Religion

ISAAC WATTS, 1709 — LOWELL MASON, 1830



1. So let our lips and lives ex-press The ho-ly gos-pel we pro-fess;
2. Thus shall we best pro-claim a-broad The hon-ors of our Sav-iour God,
3. Our flesh and sin must be de-nied, Pas-sion and en-vy, lust and pride;

So let our works and vir-tues shine, To prove the doc-trine all di-vine.
When his sal-va-tion reigns with-in, And grace sub-dues the power of sin.

1 How blest the sacred tie that binds,
In union sweet, according minds!
How swift the heavenly course they run,
Whose hearts and faith and hopes are one.

2 To each, the soul of each how dear!
What jealous love, what holy fear!
How doth the generous flame within
Refine from earth and cleanse from sin!

3 In glad accord they seek the place
Where God reveals his gracious face:
How high, how strong, their raptures swell,
There's none but kindred souls can tell.

4 Nor shall the flowing flame expire
When droops at length frail nature's fire;
For they shall meet in realms above,—
A heaven of joy, because of love.

Who Shall Dwell in Thy Holy Hill

1 Who shall ascend the heavenly place,
Great God, and dwell before thy face?
The man who minds religion now,—
And humbly walks with God below.

2 Whose hands are pure, whose heart is clean,
Whose lips still speak the things they mean;
No slanders dwell upon his tongue;
He hates to do his neighbor wrong.

3 He loves his enemies and prays
For those who curse him to his face,
And does to all men still the same
That he would hope or wish from them.

4 Yet when his holiest works are done,
His soul depends on grace alone:
This is the man thy face shall see,
And dwell forever, Lord, with Thee.

Each angry passion stilled.

Ye Have the Poor Always with You

1 Lord, lead the way the Saviour went,
By lane and cell obscure,
And let our treasures still be spent,

Who bore the world's sad weight,

Would seek the desolate.

2 Blest is the pious house
Where zeal and friendship meet;
Their songs of praise, their mingled vows,
Make their communion sweet.

3 From those celestial springs
Such streams of comfort flow,
As no increase of riches brings,
No honors can bestow.

4 Thus, on the heavenly hills,
The saints are blest above,
Where joy like morning dew distils,
And all the air is love.

361 Work While It is Day

1 All around us, fair with flowers,
Fields of beauty sleeping lie;
All around us clarion voices
Call to duty stern and high.

2 Following every voice of mercy
With a trusting, loving heart,
Let us in life's earnest labor
Still be sure to do our part.

3 Now, to-day, and not tomorrow,—
Let us work with all our might,
Lest the wretched faint and perish
In the coming stormy night,—

4 Now, to-day, and not to-morrow,—
Lest, before to-morrow's sun,
We too, mournfully departing,
Shall have left our work undone.

363 Occupy Till I Come

1 A charge to keep I have,
A God to glorify,
A never-dying soul to save,
And fit it for the sky.

2 To serve the present age,
My calling to fulfill:
Oh, may it all my powers engage
To do my Master's will.

3 Arm me with jealous care,
As in thy sight to live;
And oh, thy servant, Lord, prepare
A strict account to give.

4 Help me to watch and pray,
And on thyself rely,
Assured, if I my trust betray,
I shall forever die.

364 I Will Write It in Their Hearts

1 That blessèd law of thine,
Father, to me impart;
The Spirit's law of life divine,
O, write it in my heart.

2 Implant it deep within,
Whence it may ne'er remove —
The law of liberty from sin,
The perfect law of love.

3 Thy nature be my law,
Thy spotless sanctity,
And sweetly every moment draw
My happy soul to thee.

Spiritual Wants

1 My God, my strength, my hope,
On thee I cast my care,
With humble confidence look up,
And know thou hear'st my prayer.

2 Give me on thee to wait,
Till I can all things do—
On thee, almighty to create,
Almighty to renew.

3 I want a godly fear,
A quick-discerning eye,
That looks to thee when sin is near,
And bids the tempter fly;

4 A spirit still prepared,
And armed with jealous care,
Forever standing on its guard,
And watching unto prayer.

Lead Me in Thy Truth, and Teach Me

1 I ask a perfect creed:
O that to me were given
The teaching that leads none astray,
The scholarship of heaven!

2 The one, whole truth I seek,
In this sad age of strife —
The truth of Him who is the Truth,
And in whose truth is life,—

3 Truth which contains true rest,
Which is the grave of doubt,
Which ends uncertainty and gloom,
And casts the falsehood out.

4 O True One, give me truth,
And let it quench in me
The thirst of this long-craving heart,
And set my spirit free.

The Highway of Holiness

1 Jesus, my all, to heaven is gone—
He whom I fix my hopes upon;
His track I see, and I'll pursue
The narrow way till him I view.

2 The way the holy prophets went,
The road that leads from banishment,
The King's highway of holiness,
I'll go, for all his paths are peace.

3 This is the way I long have sought,
And mourned because I found it not,
Till late I heard my Saviour say,
Come hither, soul; I am the way.

4 Lo, glad I come; and thou blest Lamb,
Shalt take me to thee as I am;
Nothing but sin have I to give,
Nothing but love shall I receive.

And seek the presence of our Lord!
Dear Saviour, on thy people smile,
And come according to thy word.

That we may here converse with thee:
Ah, Lord, behold us at thy feet —
Let this the gate of heaven be.

That we by faith may see thy face;
O, speak, that we thy voice may hear,
And let thy presence fill this place.

The Hour of Prayer

1 My God, is any hour so sweet,
From blush of morn to evening star,
As that which calls me to thy feet,
The calm and holy hour of prayer?

2 Blest is the tranquil break of morn,
And blest the hush of solemn eve,
When on the wings of prayer up-borne,
This fair, but transient, world I leave.

3 Then is my strength by thee renewed;
Then are my sins by thee forgiven;
Then dost thou cheer my solitude,
With clear and beauteous hopes of heav'n.

4 No words can tell what sweet relief,
There for my every want, I find;
What strength for warfare, balm for grief,
What deep and cheerful peace of mind!

5 Lord, till I reach the blissful shore,
No privilege so dear shall be,
As thus my inmost soul to pour
In faithful filial prayer to thee!

400 Beatitudo C. M. Prayer for Wisdom

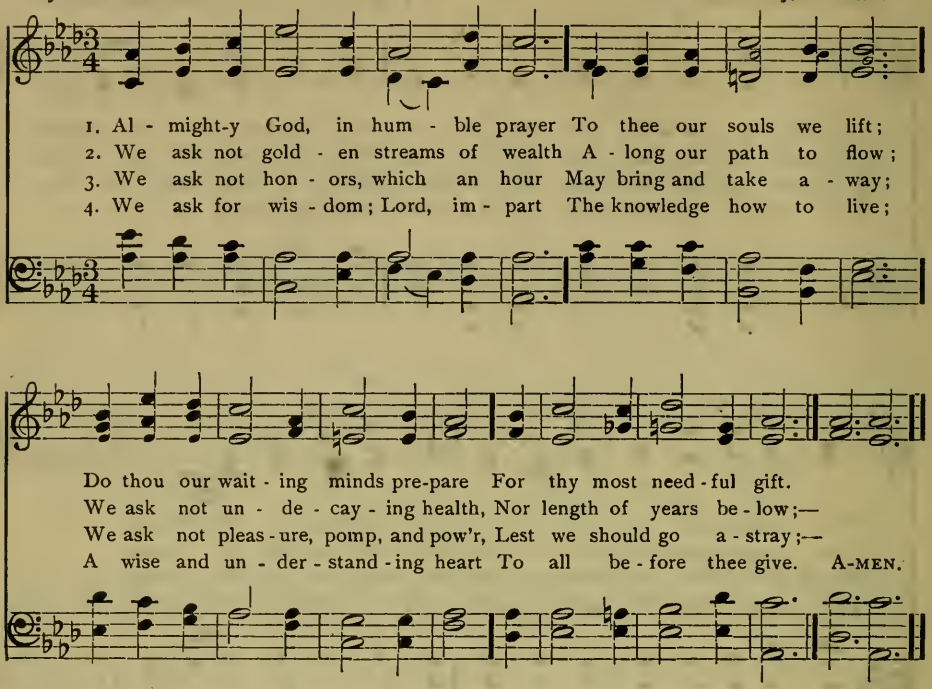
JAMES MONTGOMERY — J. B. DYKES



1. Al - might-y God, in hum - ble prayer To thee our souls we lift;
2. We ask not gold - en streams of wealth A - long our path to flow;
3. We ask not hon - ors, which an hour May bring and take a - way;
4. We ask for wis - dom; Lord, im - part The knowledge how to live;
Do thou our wait - ing minds pre-pare For thy most need - ful gift.
We ask not un - de - cay - ing health, Nor length of years be - low;—
We ask not pleas - ure, pomp, and pow'r, Lest we should go a - stray;—
A wise and un - der - stand - ing heart To all be - fore thee give. A-MEN.

401 O For a Closer Walk

1 O for a closer walk with God,
A calm and heavenly frame,—
A light to shine upon the road
That leads me to the Lamb!

2 Where is the blessedness I knew
When first I saw the Lord?
Where is the soul-refreshing view
Of Jesus and his word?

3 What peaceful hours I once enjoyed!
How sweet their memory still!
But they have left an aching void
The world can never fill.

4 Return, O holy Dove, return,
Sweet messenger of rest!
I hate the sins that made thee mourn,
And drove thee from my breast.

5 The dearest idol I have known,
Whate'er that idol be,
Help me to tear it from thy throne,
And worship only thee.

6 So shall my walk be close with God,
Calm and serene my frame;
So purer light shall mark the road
That leads me to the Lamb.

Make Haste to Help Me

Anon. T. HAWEIS

1. Great God, let not thy grace de - lay To meet me with thy love;
2. We long to meet our God to - day, And taste his grace di - vine,
3. O, how I pant, great God, to see Thy face, and taste thy love;
4. O God, in - spire each heart and tongue To learn thy pre - cious name;
Drive in - ter - pos - ing clouds a - way, And make my guilt re- move.
That ev - 'ry soul with joy may say, My Lord, my God, I'm thine.
O, speak, and bring me near to thee, And all my doubts re- move.
Re - deem - ing love shall be my song, While I thy love pro-claim. A - MEN.

403 Prayer for Grace in Trial

1 Father of all our mercies, thou
In whom we move and live,
Hear us in heaven, thy dwelling, now,
And answer and forgive.

2 When, harassed by ten thousand foes,
Our helplessness we feel,
Oh give the weary soul repose,
The wounded spirit heal!

3 When dire temptations gather round,
And threaten or allure,
By storm or calm, in thee be found,
A refuge strong and sure.

4 When age advances, may we grow
In faith and hope and love,
And walk in holiness below
To holiness above!

Have Mercy on Me

ANNE STEELE — ISAAC TUCKER, 1800

1. O thou, whose ten - der mer - cy hears Con - tri - tion's
2. See, Lord, be - fore thy throne of grace, A wretch - ed
3. And shall my guilt - y fears pre - vail To drive me
4. Oh, shine on this be - night - ed heart, With beams of hum - ble sigh; Whose hand in - dul - gent wipes the tears wan - d'rer, mourn; Hast thou not bid me seek thy face?
from thy feet? Oh, let not this dear ref - uge fail, mer - cy shine! And let thy heal - ing voice im - part
From sor - row's weep - ing eye, From sor - row's weep - ing eye;—
Hast thou not said—"Re - turn?" Hast thou not said—"Re - turn?"
This on - ly safe re - treat! This on - ly safe re - treat!

Prayer for Submission

1 One prayer I have—all prayers in one,
When I am wholly thine—
Thy will, my God, thy will be done,
And let that will be mine.

2 May I remember that to thee
Whate'er I have I owe;
And back in gratitude from me
May all thy bounties flow.

3 Thy gifts are only then enjoyed
When used as talents lent;
Those talents only well employed
When in thy service spent.

4 And though thy wisdom takes away,
Shall I arraign thy will?
No, let me bless thy name, and say,
The Lord is gracious still.

JAMES MONTGOMERY

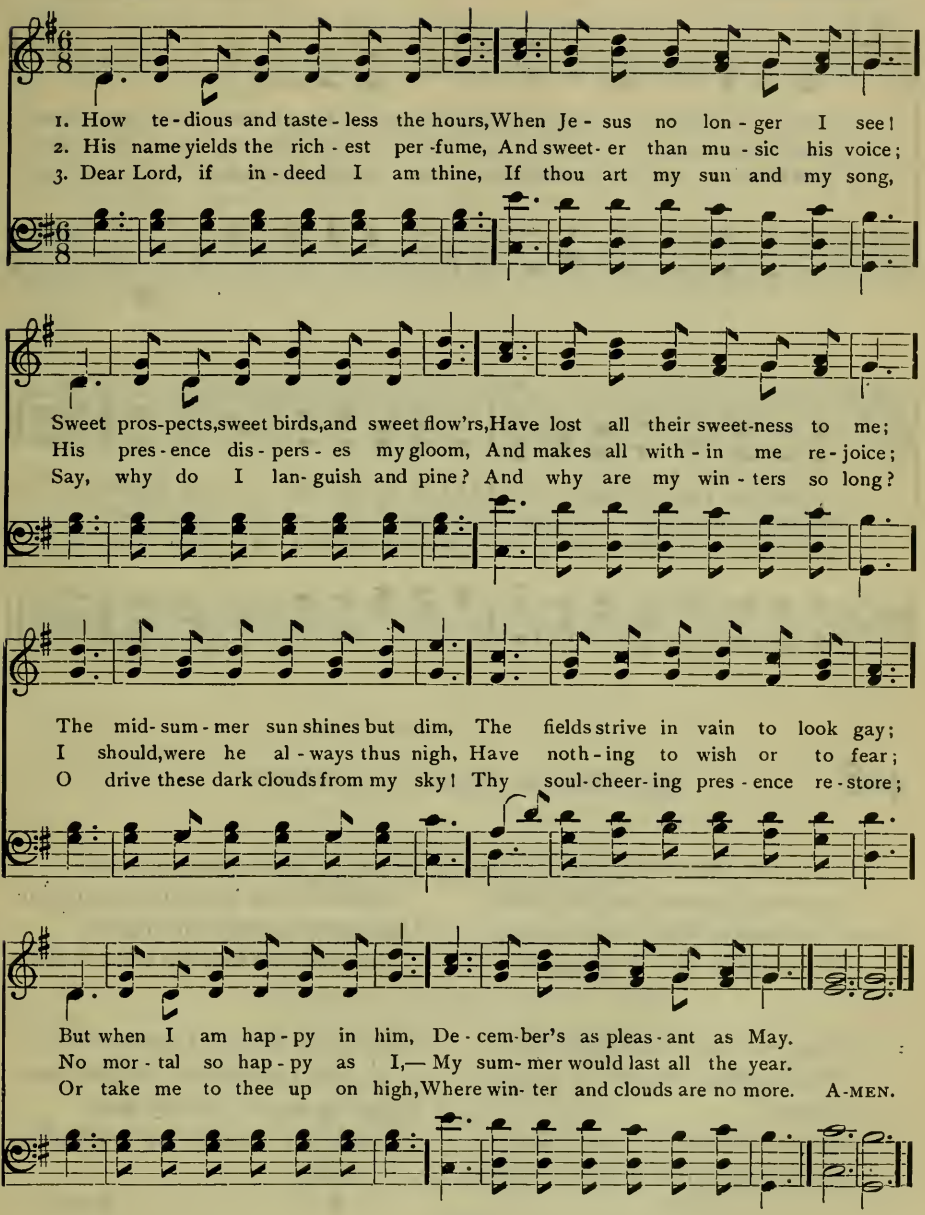
JOHN NEWTON — LEWIS EDSON



1. How te-dious and taste-less the hours, When Je-sus no lon-ger I see!
2. His name yields the rich-est per-fume, And sweet-er than mu-sic his voice;
3. Dear Lord, if in-deed I am thine, If thou art my sun and my song,
Sweet pros-pects, sweet birds, and sweet flow'rs, Have lost all their sweet-ness to me;
His pres-ence dis-pers-es my gloom, And makes all with-in me re-joice;
Say, why do I lan-guish and pine? And why are my win-ters so long?
The mid-sum-mer sun shines but dim, The fields strive in vain to look gay;
I should, were he al-ways thus nigh, Have noth-ing to wish or to fear;
O drive these dark clouds from my sky! Thy soul-cheer-ing pres-ence re-store;
But when I am hap-py in him, De-cem-ber's as pleas-ant as May.
No mor-tal so hap-py as I,— My sum-mer would last all the year.
Or take me to thee up on high, Where win-ter and clouds are no more. A-MEN.

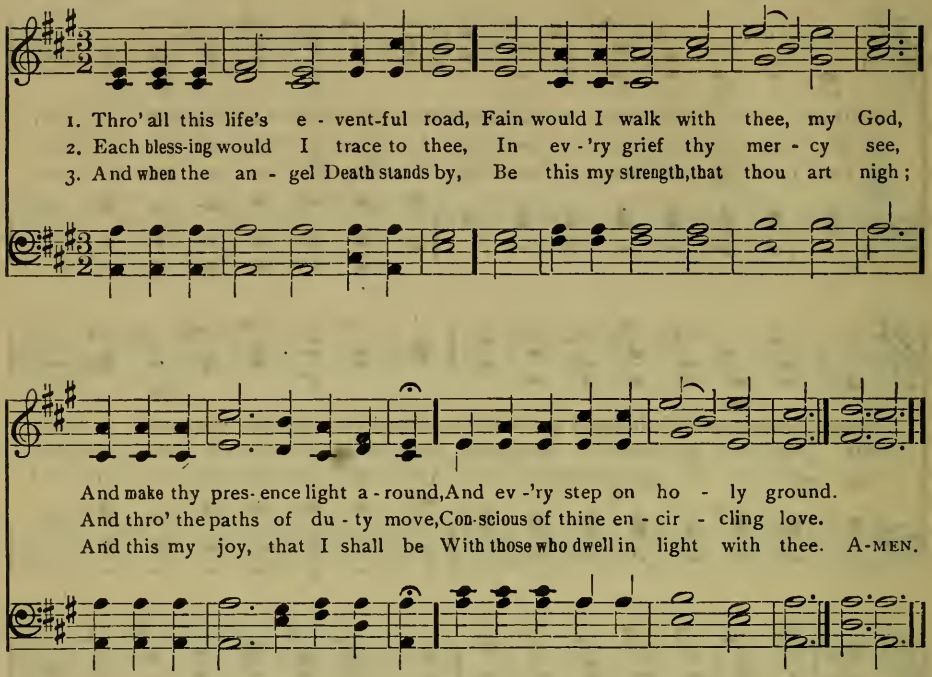
Walking with God

WILLIAM GASKELL — GEORGE KINGSLEY, 1838



1. Thro' all this life's e - vent-ful road, Fain would I walk with thee, my God,
2. Each bless-ing would I trace to thee, In ev - 'ry grief thy mer - cy see,
3. And when the an - gel Death stands by, Be this my strength, that thou art nigh;
And make thy pres-ence light a - round, And ev -'ry step on ho - ly ground.
And thro' the paths of du - ty move, Con-scious of thine en - cir - cling love.
And this my joy, that I shall be With those who dwell in light with thee. A-MEN.

Did Not Our Hearts Burn within Us

1 Hath not thy heart within thee burned
At evening's calm and holy hour,
As if its inmost depths discerned
The presence of a loftier power?

2 As they, who once with Jesus trod,
With kindling breast his accents heard,
But knew not that the Son of God
Was uttering every burning word,—

3 Father of Jesus, thus thy voice
Speaks to our hearts in tones divine;
Our spirits tremble and rejoice,
But know not that the voice is thine.

4 Still be thy hallowed accents near;
To doubt and passion whisper peace;
Direct us on our journey here,
And bid, in heaven, our wanderings cease.

409 Warrington L. M. The Hidden Life

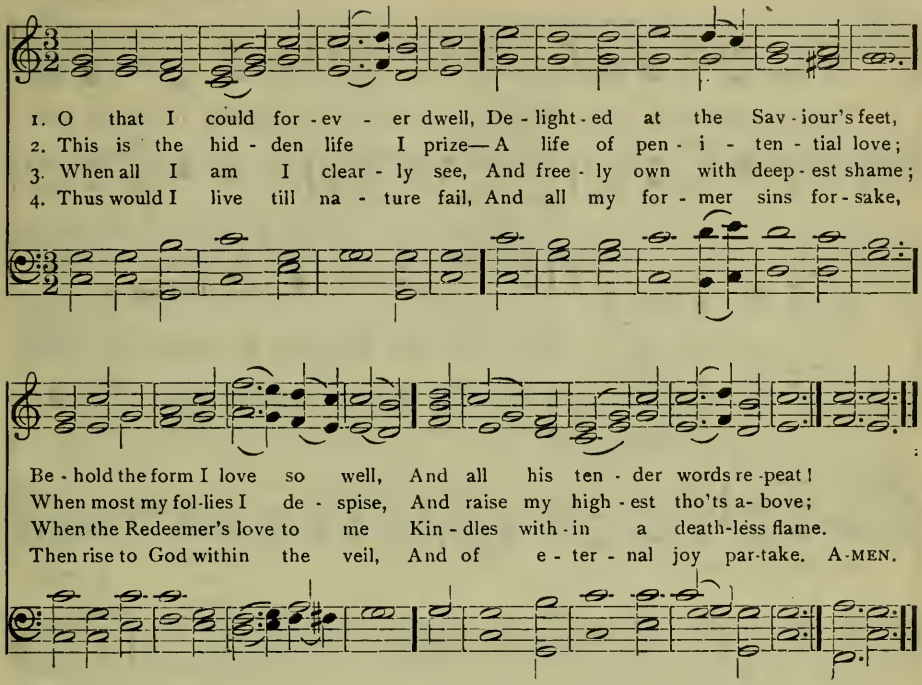
Anon.



1. O that I could for - ev - er dwell, De - light - ed at the Sav - iour's feet,
2. This is the hid - den life I prize—A life of pen - i - ten - tial love;
3. When all I am I clear - ly see, And free - ly own with deep - est shame;
4. Thus would I live till na - ture fail, And all my for - mer sins for - sake,
Be - hold the form I love so well, And all his ten - der words re - peat!
When most my fol - lies I de - spise, And raise my high - est tho'ts a - bove;

410 Lo, I Am with You Alway

1 There's not a hope with comfort fraught,
Triumphant over death and time,
But Jesus mingles in the thought,
Forerunner of our course sublime.

2 I see him in the daily round
Of social duty, mild and meek;
With him I tread the hallowed ground,
Communion with my God to seek.

3 I meet him at the lowly tomb;
I weep where Jesus wept before;
And there above the grave's dark gloom,
I see him rise and weep no more.

411 Bethany 6s. & 4s. Nearer to God

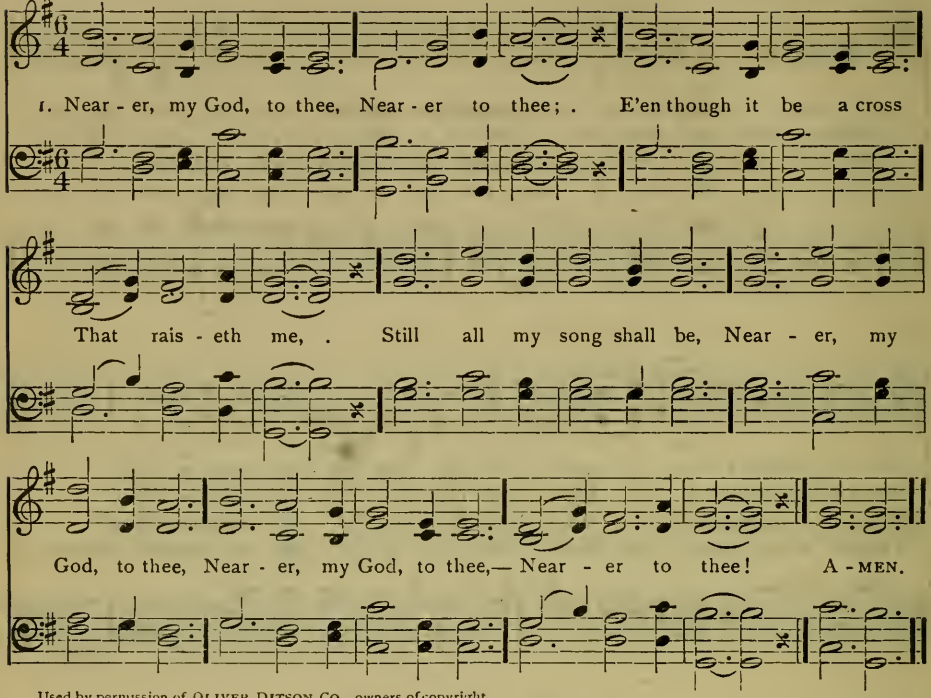
LOWELL MASON, 1859



1. Near - er, my God, to thee, Near - er to thee; . E'en though it be a cross
That rais - eth me, . Still all my song shall be, Near - er, my God, to thee, Near - er, my God, to thee,— Near - er to thee! A - MEN.

2 Though like the wanderer,
The sun gone down,
Darkness be over me,
My rest a stone,
Yet, in my dreams, I'd be
Nearer, my God, to thee,—
Nearer to thee.

3 There let the way appear,
Steps up to heaven;
All that thou sendest me
In mercy given;
Angels to beckon me
Nearer, my God, to thee,—
Nearer to thee.

4 Then, with my waking thoughts
Bright with thy praise,
Out of my stony griefs
Bethel I'll raise;
So by my woes to be
Nearer, my God, to thee,—
Nearer to thee.

5 Or if, on joyful wing,
Cleaving the sky,
Sun, moon, and stars forgot,
Upward I fly,
Still all my song shall be,
Nearer, my God, to thee,—
Nearer to thee.

412 Closer, Still Closer 11s.

L. R. C. W. A. Ogden, by per.

1. Clos-er, still clos-er, my Saviour, to thee, Clos-er to Je-sus, fain, fain would I be;
2. Clos-er by day, tho' my skies be all bright, Closer, still clos-er, when fall-eth the night;
3. When to the Jor-dan of death I de-scend, Dan-ger I fear not, if Christ be my friend;
Round me his arm, on his bo-som my head, Near the dear side which on Cal-va-ry bled.
Earth has no spot where with-out him I'm safe, Time has no mo-ment I need not his grace.
Breasting the bil-lows, my death-song shall be, Clos-er, still clos-er, my Sav-iour, to thee.
Chorus

Clos-er, still clos-er, still clos-er to thee, clo-ser, Clos-er, clos-er to thee.

Closer with God

1 Saviour, I follow on,
Guided by thee,
Seeing not yet the hand
That leadeth me;
Hushed be my heart and still,
Fear I no further ill,
Only to meet thy will
My will shall be.

2 Riven the rock for me,
Thirst to relieve;
Manna from heaven falls
Fresh every eve;
Never a want severe
Causeth my eye a tear,
But thou dost whisper near,
"Only believe!"

3 Saviour! I long to walk
Closer with thee;
Led by thy guiding hand
Ever to be;
Constantly near thy side,
Quickened and purified,
Living for him who died
Freely for me.

Blessed are the Pure in Heart

1 Blest are the pure in heart,
For they shall see their God;
The secret of the Lord is theirs;
Their soul is Christ's abode.

2 The Lord, who left the heavens,
Our life and peace to bring,
To dwell in lowliness with men,
Their pattern and their King,—

3 He to the lowly soul
Doth still himself impart,
And for his dwelling, and his throne,
Chooseth the pure in heart.

4 Lord, we thy presence seek;
May ours this blessing be;
O give the pure and lowly heart,—
A temple meet for thee.

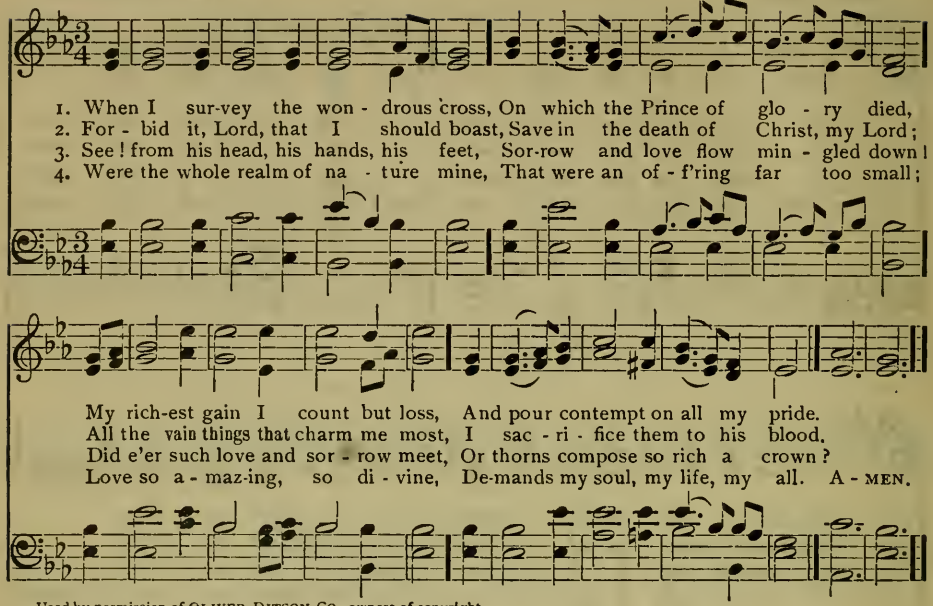
ISAAC WATTS — Arr. fr. CHERUBINI, by L. O. EMERSON



1. When I sur-vey the won - drous cross, On which the Prince of glo - ry died,
2. For - bid it, Lord, that I should boast, Save in the death of Christ, my Lord;
3. See! from his head, his hands, his feet, Sor-row and love flow min - gled down!
4. Were the whole realm of na - ture mine, That were an of - f'ring far too small;
My rich-est gain I count but loss, And pour contempt on all my pride.
All the vain things that charm me most, I sac - ri - fice them to his blood.

Love so a - maz-ing, so di - vine, De-mands my soul, my life, my all. A - MEN.

I Will Love What God Will Speak

1 Speak with us, Lord; thyself reveal,
While here on earth we rove;
Speak to our hearts, and let us feel
The kindlings of thy love.

2 With thee conversing, we forget
All toil, and time, and care;
Labor is rest, and pain is sweet,
If thou art present there.

3 Here then, my God, be pleased to stay,
And bid my heart rejoice;
My bounding heart shall own thy sway,
And echo to thy voice.

4 Thou callest me to seek thy face;
Thy face, O God, I seek,
Attend the whispers of thy grace
And hear thee only speak.

424 Before the Cross

1 Sweet the moments, rich in blessing,
Which before the cross I spend,
Life, and health, and peace possessing,
From the sinner's dying Friend.

2 Truly blessèd is this station,
Low before his cross to lie,
While I see divine compassion
Beaming in his gracious eye.

3 Love and grief my heart dividing,
With my tears his feet I'll bathe;
Constant still, in faith abiding,
Life deriving from his death.

4 May I still enjoy this feeling,
Still to my Redeemer go,
Prove his wounds each day more healing,
And himself more truly know.

Rise o'er sin, and fear, and care;

Think what Spirit dwells within thee:
Think what Father's smiles are thine;
Think that Jesus died to win thee:
Child of heaven, canst thou repine?

Armed by faith, and winged by prayer,
Heaven's eternal day's before thee:

The Harvest Call

1 Abide not in the realm of dreams,
O man, however fair it seems;
But with clear eye the present scan,
And hear the call of God and man.

Behold to-day hath need of thee!

And trust his love whose sure supplies
Meet all thy needs as they arise.

The Hope of Man

1 O, sometimes gleams upon our sight,
Through present wrong, the eternal Right,
And step by step, since time began,
We see the steady gain of man.

2 That all of good the past hath had
Remains to make our own time glad,
Our common, daily life divine,
And every land a Palestine.

3 Through the harsh noises of our day,
A low, sweet prelude finds its way;
Thro' clouds of doubt, and creeds of fear,
A light is breaking calm and clear.

4 Henceforth my heart shall sigh no more
For olden time and holier shore;
God's love and blessing, then and there,
Are now and here and everywhere.

Yield but a higher glory still.

3 Press on, press on! still look in faith

Then shall ye hear his word, "Well done!"
True to the last, press on, press on!

433 Go Work To-day in My Vineyard

1 Go, labór on; spend and be spent,
Thy joy to do thy Father's will;
It is the way the Master went;
Should not the servant tread it still?

2 Go, labor on; 'tis not for nought;
Thine earthly loss is heavenly gain:
Men heed thee, love thee, praise thee not;
The Master praises,—what are men?

3 Go, labor on; enough while here,
If he shall praise thee: if he deign
Thy willing heart to mark and cheer,
No toil for him shall be in vain.

4 Toil on, and in thy toil rejoice;
For toil, comes rest; for exile, home:
Soon shalt thou hear the Bridegroom's voice,
The midnight peal, Behold, I come!

435 Why Stand Ye All the Day Idle

1 The God of glory walks his round,
From day to day, from year to year,
And warns us each with awful sound,
No longer stand ye idle here.

2 O, if the griefs ye would assuage,
That wait on life's declining year;
Secure a blessing for your age,
And work your master's business here!

3 And ye, whose locks of scanty gray
Foretell your latest travail near,
How swiftly fades your worthless day;
And stand ye yet so idle here?

4 O thou, by all thy works adored,
To whom the sinner's soul is dear,
Recall us to thy vineyard, Lord,
And grant us grace to please thee here.

436 The Christian Soldier

1 The Christian warrior,—see him stand
In the whole armor of his God!
The Spirit's sword is in his hand,
His feet are with the gospel shod;

2 In panoply of truth complete,
Salvation's helmet on his head,
With righteousness, a breastplate meet,
And faith's broad shield before him spread:

3 With this omnipotence he moves,
From this the alien armies flee;
Till more than conqueror he proves,
Through God who gives him victory.

437 Cheritb C. M. The Cross before the Crown

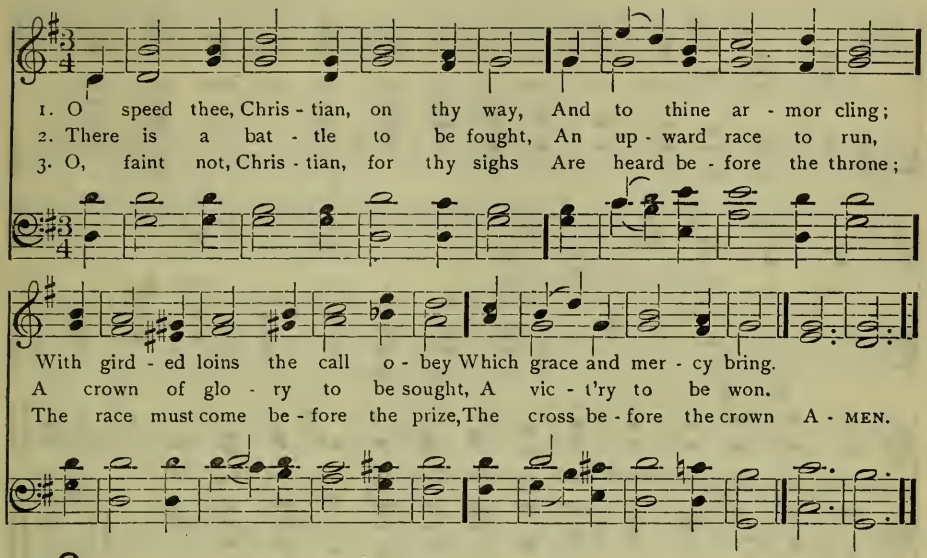
T. B. ONDERDONK — Arr. fr. LUDWIG SPOHR



1. O speed thee, Chris - tian, on thy way, And to thine ar - mor cling;
2. There is a bat - tle to be fought, An up - ward race to run,
3. O, faint not, Chris - tian, for thy sighs Are heard be - fore the throne;
With gird - ed loins the call o - bey Which grace and mer - cy bring.
A crown of glo - ry to be sought, A vic - t'ry to be won.
The race must come be - fore the prize, The cross be - fore the crown A - MEN.

438 Working with God

1 Workman of God, O lose not heart,
But learn what God is like!
And, in the darkest battle-field,
Thou shalt know where to strike.

2 O, blest is he to whom is given
The instinct that can tell
That God is on the field, when he
Is most invisible!

3 And best is he who can divine
Where real right doth lie,
And dares to take the side that seems
Wrong to man's blindfold eye.

4 For right is right, since God is God,
And right the day must win;
To doubt it is disloyalty;
To falter is to sin.

FREDERICK W. FABER 1849

439 As the Hart Panteth after the Water-brooks

1 As pants the hart for cooling streams,
When heated in the chase,
So longs my soul, O God, for thee,
And thy refreshing grace.

2 For thee, my God, the living God,
My thirsty soul doth pine;
O, when shall I behold thy face,
Thou Majesty divine?

3 Why restless, why cast down, my soul?
Trust God, and he'll employ
His aid for thee, and change these sighs
To thankful hymns of joy.

4 Why restless, why cast down, my soul?
Hope still, and thou shalt sing
The praise of Him who is thy God,
Thy health's eternal Spring.

Put On the Whole Armor of God

1. Sol - diers of Christ, a - rise, And gird your arm - or on,

Strong in the strength which God sup - plies,
Strong in the strength which God sup - plies,
Strong in the strength which God sup - plies Thro' his be - lov - ed Son. A-MEN.

2 Strong in the Lord of Hosts,
And in his mighty power,
Who in the strength of Jesus trusts,

3 Stand then in his great might,
With all his strength endued;
But take, to arm you for the fight,
The panoply of God; —

4 That, having all things done,
And all your conflicts past,
Ye may o'ercome, through Christ alone,
And stand entire at last.

1. I'm not a-shamed to own my Lord, Or to de-fend his cause;
2. Je-sus, my Lord!—I know his name— His name is all my trust;
3. Firm as his throne his prom-ise stands, And he can well se-cure

443 The Christian Soldier

1 Am I a soldier of the cross,
A follower of the Lamb?
And shall I fear to own his cause,
Or blush to speak his name?

2 Must I be carried to the skies
On flowery beds of ease?
While others fought to win the prize,
And sailed through bloody seas?

3 Sure I must fight, if I would reign;
Increase my courage, Lord!
I'll bear the toil, endure the pain,
Supported by thy word.

4 When that illustrious day shall rise,
And all thy armies shine
In robes of victory through the skies,
The glory shall be thine.

1 My soul, weigh not thy life
Against thy heavenly crown,
Nor suffer Satan's deadliest strife
To beat thy courage down.

2 With prayer and crying strong,
Hold on the fearful fight;
And let the breaking day prolong
The wrestling of the night.

3 The battle soon will yield,
If thou thy part fulfil;

Thy sword is stronger still.

And on thy head shall quickly shine

In the Morning Sow Thy Seed

1 Sow in the morn thy seed;
At eve hold not thy hand;
To doubt and fear give thou no heed;
Broadcast it o'er the land!

2 Beside all waters sow,
The highway furrows stock,
Drop it where thorns and thistles grow,
Scatter it on the rock.

3 Thou canst not toil in vain;
Cold, heat, the moist and dry,
Shall foster and mature the grain
For garners in the sky.

4 Then, when the glorious end,
The day of God shall come,
The angel-reapers shall descend,
And heaven sing, "Harvest home!"

1 Thy will, not mine, O Lord,
However dark it be!
Lead me by thine own hand,
Choose out the path for me.
I dare not choose my lot:
I would not if I might;
Choose thou for me, my God,
So shall I walk aright.

2 The kingdom that I seek
Is thine; so let the way
That leads to it be truly thine,
Else I must surely stray.
Take thou my cup, and it
With joy or sorrow fill,
As best to thee may seem;
Choose thou my good and ill.

3 Choose thou for me my friends,
My sickness or my health;
Choose thou my cares for me,
My poverty or wealth.
Not mine, not mine the choice,
In things or great or small;
Be thou my Guide, my Strength,
My Wisdom and my All.

Himself Hath Suffered

1 Christ leads me through no darker rooms
Than he went through before;
No one into his kingdom comes
But through his opened door.

2 Come, Lord, when grace hath made me meet
Thy blessèd face to see;
For, if thy work on earth be sweet,
What must thy glory be?

3 Then I shall end my sad complaints;
And weary, sinful days;
And join with those triumphant saints
That sing Jehovah's praise.

4 My knowledge of that life is small,
The eye of faith is dim:
But 'tis enough that Christ knows all,
And I shall be with him.

My Times are in Thy Hands

1 My times of sorrow and of joy,
Great God, are in thy hand;
My choicest comforts come from thee,
And go at thy command.

2 If thou shouldst take them all away,
Yet would I not repine;
Before they were possessed by me,
They were entirely thine.

3 Nor would I drop a murmuring word
Though all the world were gone,
But seek enduring happiness
In thee, and thee alone.

Joy Cometh in the Morning

1 O, deem not they are blest alone
Whose lives a peaceful tenor keep;
For God, who pities man, has shown
A blessing for the eyes that weep.

2 The light of smiles shall fill again
The lids that overflow with tears;
And weary hours of woe and pain
Are promises of happier years.

3 There is a day of sunny rest
For every dark and troubled night;
And grief may bide an evening guest,
But joy shall come with early light.

And numbered every secret tear;
And heaven's long age of bliss shall pay

Begotten Us unto a Lively Hope

1 How happy every child of grace,
Who knows his sins forgiven!
This earth, he cries, is not my place;
I seek my home in heaven;—

2 A country far from mortal sight,
Yet, O, by faith I see
The land of rest, the saints' delight,
The heaven prepared for me.

3 We feel the resurrection near,
Our life in Christ concealed,
And with his glorious presence here
Our earthen vessels filled.

4 On him with rapture then I'll gaze,
Who bought the bliss for me,
And shout and wonder at his grace
Through all eternity.

1 We bless thee for thy peace, O God,
Deep as the soundless sea,
Which falls like sunshine on the road
Of those who trust in thee.

2 We ask not, Father, for repose
Which comes from outward rest,
If we may have, through all life's woes,
Thy peace within our breast.

3 That peace which suffers and is strong,
Trusts where it cannot see,
Deems not the trial way too long,
But leaves the end with thee;—

4 That peace which flows serene and deep,—
A river in the soul,
Whose banks a living verdure keep,
God's sunshine o'er the whole;—

5 Such, Father, give our hearts such peace,
Whate'er the outward be,
Till all life's discipline shall cease,
And we go home to thee.

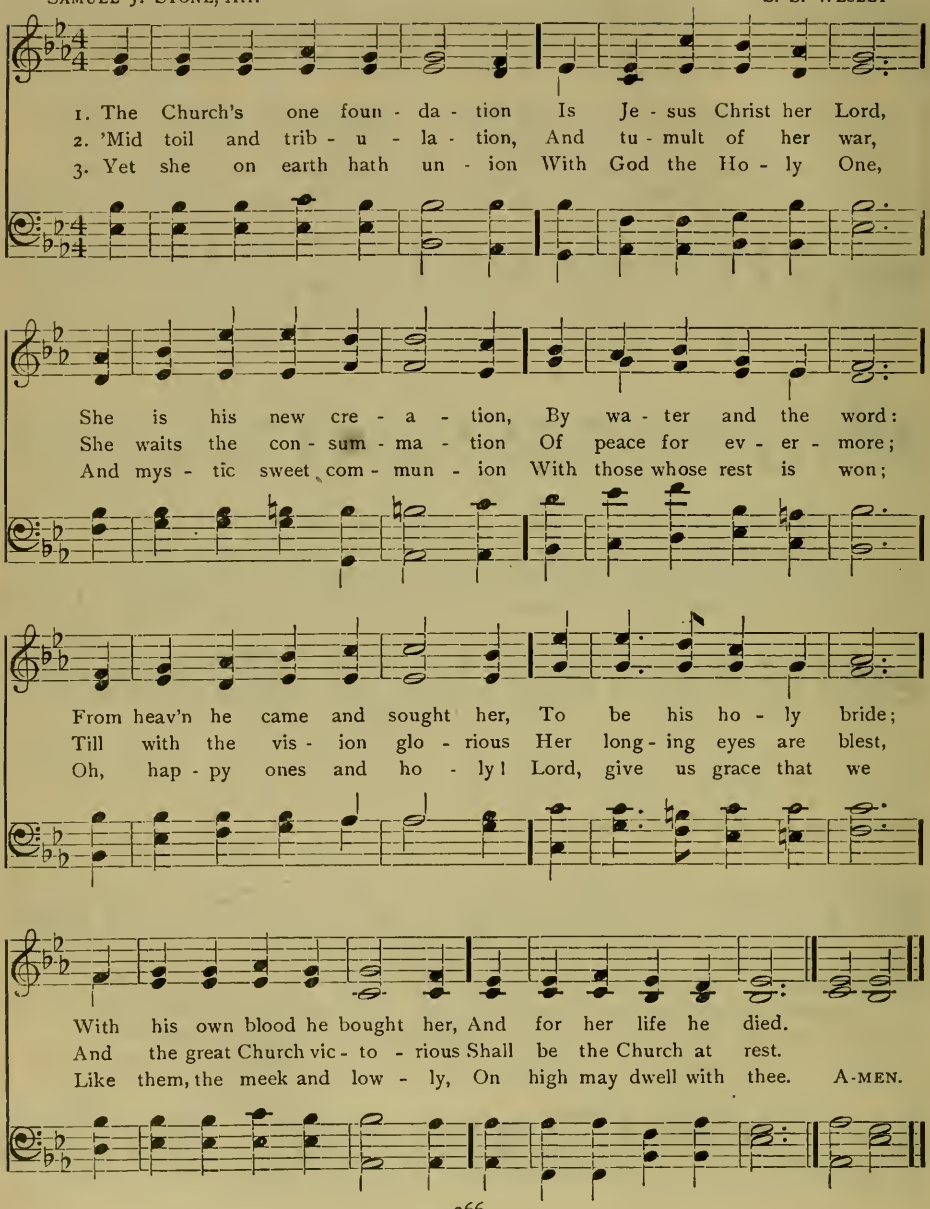
The Church is Christ's

SAMUEL J. STONE, Arr. S. S. WESLEY



1. The Church's one foun - da - tion Is Je - sus Christ her Lord,
2. 'Mid toil and trib - u - la - tion, And tu - mult of her war,
3. Yet she on earth hath un - ion With God the Ho - ly One,
She is his new cre - a - tion, By wa - ter and the word:
She waits the con - sum - ma - tion Of peace for ev - er - more;
And mys - tic sweet com - mun - ion With those whose rest is won;
From heav'n he came and sought her, To be his ho - ly bride;
Till with the vis - ion glo - rious Her long - ing eyes are blest,
Oh, hap - py ones and ho - ly! Lord, give us grace that we
With his own blood he bought her, And for her life he died.

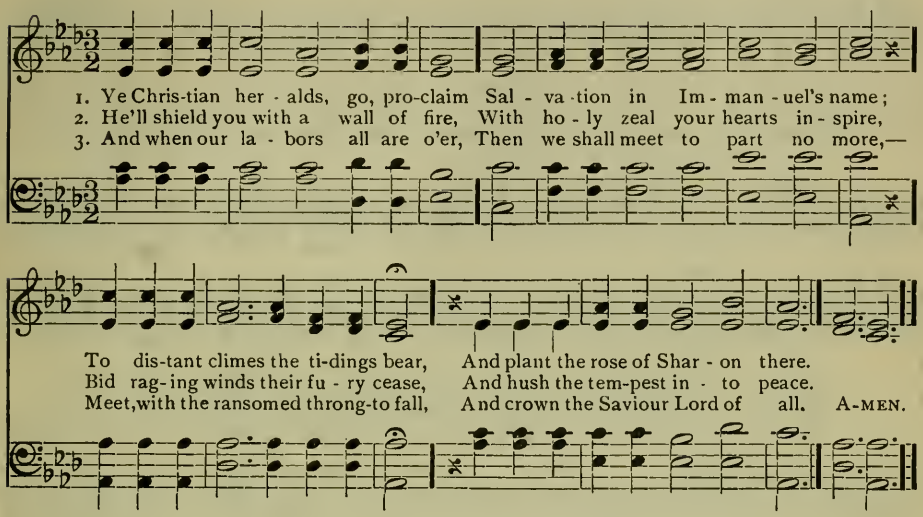
I Will Publish the Name of the Lord

Mrs. Voke, 1816 — Charles Zeuner, 1832



1. Ye Chris-tian her - alds, go, pro-claim Sal - va - tion in Im - man - uel's name;
2. He'll shield you with a wall of fire, With ho - ly zeal your hearts in - spire,
3. And when our la - bors all are o'er, Then we shall meet to part no more,—
To dis-tant climes the ti-dings bear, And plant the rose of Shar - on there.

Meet, with the ransomed throng-to fall, And crown the Saviour Lord of all. A-MEN.

508 Go Into All the World and Preach

1 Go, preach my gospel, saith the Lord;
Bid the whole earth my grace receive;
They shall be saved who trust my word,
And they condemned who disbelieve:

2 I'll make your great commission known,
And ye shall prove my gospel true
By all the works that I have done,
By all the wonders ye shall do.

3 Teach all the nations my commands;
I'm with you till the world shall end;
All power is trusted in my hands;
I can destroy, and I defend.

4 He spoke, and light shone round his head;
On a bright cloud to heaven he rode;
They to the farthest nations spread
The grace of their ascended Lord.

Isaac Watts

509 Receive Him in the Lord with Gladness

1 We bid thee welcome in the name
Of Jesus, our exalted Head;
Come as a servant: so he came,
And we receive thee in his stead.

2 Come as a watchman: take thy stand
Upon the tower amid the sky,
And when the sword comes on the land,
Call us to fight, or warn to fly.

3 Come as a teacher, sent from God,
Charged his whole counsel to declare;
Lift o'er our ranks the prophet's rod,
While we uphold thy hands with prayer.

4 Come as a messenger of peace,
Filled with the Spirit, fired with love;
Live to behold our large increase,
And die to meet us all above.

Dedication

1 Lord, in thy presence we appear,
With willing hands and hearts sincere
To consecrate beneath the skies,
An altar for thy sacrifice.

2 The universe is thine, O God,
Eternity thy vast abode;
Then what is man that he should be
The builder of a house for thee?

3 But though thy temple is all space,
The heaven of heavens thy dwelling-place,
Yet wilt thou deign, Almighty God,
To make this building thine abode.

4 Here, where thy waiting children meet
Fix thou, O Lord, thy mercy-seat;
And in this temple we have raised,
O let thy gracious name be praised.

1 Believing souls, of Christ beloved,
Who have yourselves to him resigned,
Your faith and practice both approved,
A hearty welcome here shall find.

2 Now saved from sin and Satan's wiles,
Though by a scorning world abhorred,
Now share with us the Saviour's smiles,
Come in, ye ransomed of the Lord.

3 In fellowship we join our hands,
And you an invitation give;
Unite with us in sacred bands;
The pledges of our love receive.

4 Do thou, who art the church's Head,
This union with thy blessing crown;
And still, O Lord, revive the dead,
Till thousands more thy name shall own.

Let cheer-ful an-thems fill the house, While to his al-tar now I move.

Fulfil All Righteousness

1 Buried beneath the yielding wave
The great Redeemer lies;
Faith views him in the watery grave,
And thence beholds him rise.

2 Thus do his willing saints, to-day,
Their ardent zeal express,
And, in the Lord's appointed way,
Fulfil all righteousness.

3 With joy we in his footsteps tread,
And would his cause maintain,—
Like him be numbered with the dead,
And with him rise and reign.

Benjamin Beddome, 1818

Baptism of Jesus

1 "I come," the great Redeemer cries,
"To do thy will, O Lord!"
At Jordan's flood, behold! he seals
The sure prophetic word.

2 "Thus it becomes us to fulfil
All righteousness," he said;
He spake obedient, and beneath
The yielding wave was laid.

3 Hark! a glad voice; the Father speaks,
From heaven's exalted height;
"This is my Son, my well-beloved!
My joy, my chief delight."

4 Jesus, the Saviour, well-beloved!
His name we will profess,
Like him, desirous to fulfil
Each law of righteousness.

5 No more we'll count ourselves our own,
But his in bonds of love;
O may such bonds forever draw
Our souls to things above.

The Family in Heaven and Earth

1 The saints on earth and those above
But one communion make;
Joined to their Lord in bonds of love,
All of his grace partake.

2 One army of the living God,
To his command we bow;
Part of the host have crossed the flood,
And part are crossing now.

3 One family, we dwell in him;
One church above, beneath;
Though now divided by the stream,
The narrow stream of death.

4 O God, be thou our constant Guide;
Then, when the word is given,
Bid death's cold flood its waves divide,
And land us safe in heaven.

But most of all admire that I

And bids me freely come.

No Saviour is like ours.

Let This Mind be in You Which was in Christ

1 Ye followers of the Prince of Peace,
Who round this table draw,
Remember what his spirit was,
What his peculiar law.

2 The love which all his bosom filled
Did all his actions guide;
Inspired by love, he lived and taught;
Inspired by love, he died.

3 Let each the sacred law fulfil;
Like his be every mind;
Be every temper formed by love,
And every action kind.

Close of Communion

1 From the table now retiring,
Which for us the Lord hath spread,
May our souls, refreshment finding,
Grow in all things like our Head!

2 His example by beholding,
May our lives his image bear;
Him our Lord and Master calling,
His commands may we revere.

3 Love to God and man displaying,
Walking steadfast in his way,
Joy attend us in believing,
Peace from God thro' endless day.

Communion Hymn

1 Jesus, we thy promise claim:
We are met in thy dear name;
In the midst do thou appear;
Manifest thy presence here.

Sanctify us, Lord, and bless;
Breathe thy spirit, give thy peace;
Thou thyself within us move:
Make our feast a feast of love.

3 Give to us thy humble mind,
Patient, fearless, just, and kind;
Meek and lowly let us be,—
Full of goodness, full of thee.

Delight in the Communion

1 O, what delight is this,
Which now in Christ we know,—
An earnest of our glorious bliss,
Our heaven begun below.

2 When he the table spreads,
How royal is the cheer!
With rapture we lift up our heads,
And own that God is here.

3 The Lamb for sinners slain,
Who died to die no more,
Let all the ransomed sons of men,
With all his hosts, adore.

4 Let earth and heaven be joined,
His glories to display,
And hymn the Saviour of mankind
In one eternal day.

For Ye are All One in Christ Jesus

1 Let party names no more
The Christian world o'erspread;
Gentile and Jew, and bond and free
Are one in Christ, their Head.

2 Among the saints on earth
Let mutual love be found—
Heirs of the same inheritance,
With mutual blessings crowned.

3 Thus will the church below
Resemble that above,
Where springs of purest pleasure rise,
And every heart is love.

The Universal Bond of Love

1 The glorious universe around,
The heavens with all their train,
Sun, moon, and stars, are firmly bound,
In one mysterious chain.

2 In one fraternal bond of love,
One fellowship of mind,
The saints below and saints above
Their bliss and glory find.

3 Here, in their house of pilgrimage,
Thy statutes are their song;
There, through one bright, eternal age,
Thy praises they prolong.

Of One Heart and of One Soul

1 Blest be the dear, uniting love
That will not let us part;
Our bodies may far-off remove,
We still are one in heart.

2 Joined in one Spirit to our Head,
Where he appoints we go:
We still in Jesus' footsteps tread,
And show his praise below.

3 Partakers of the Saviour's grace,
The same in mind and heart,
Not joy, nor grief, nor time, nor place,
Nor life, nor death, can part.

1 Our souls, by love together knit,
Cemented, joined in one,
One hope, one heart, one mind, one voice,
'Tis heaven on earth begun.

The heavens are big with rain;
We haste to catch the teeming shower,
And all its moisture drain.

Till all proclaim thee Lord.

And sett'st thy starry crown,
When all thy sparkling gems shall shine,
Proclaim us, Lord, thine own.

Father of love and light,
Speed on thy word:

Home Missions

1 Look from thy sphere of endless day,
O God of mercy and of might!
In pity look on those who stray,
Benighted in this land of light.

2 Send forth thy heralds, Lord, to call
The thoughtless young, the hardened old,
A scattered, homeless flock, till all
Be gathered to thy peaceful fold.

3 Send them thy mighty word to speak,
Till faith shall dawn, and doubt depart,
To awe the bold, to stay the weak,
And bind and heal the broken heart.

4 Then all these wastes, a dreary scene,
That makes us sadden as we gaze,
Shall grow with living waters green,
And lift to heaven the voice of praise.

City Mission

1 Go messengers of peace and love,
To people plunged in shades of night;
Like angels sent from fields above,
Be thine to shed celestial light.

2 Go to the hungry—food impart;
To paths of peace the wanderer guide;
And lead the thirsty, panting heart
Where streams of living waters glide.

3 Thy love a rich reward shall find
From him who sits enthroned on high;
For they who turn the erring mind
Shall shine like stars above the sky.

589 Quit You Like Men; be Strong

1 We are living, we are dwelling
In a grand and awful time,
In an age of ages telling:
To be living is sublime.
Hark! the onset! will ye fold your
Faith-clad arms in lazy lock?
Up! O, up! thou drowsy soldier;
Worlds are charging to the shock.

2 Worlds are charging, heaven beholding;
Thou hast but an hour to fight;
Now, the blazoned cross unfolding,
On! right onward for the right.
On! let all the soul within you
For the truth's sake go abroad:
Strike! let every nerve and sinew
Tell on ages — tell for God.

Look Not upon the Wine

1 Slavery and death the cup contains;
Dash to the earth the poisoned bowl;
Softer than silk are iron chains,
Compared with those that chafe the soul.

2 Hosannas, Lord, to thee we sing,
Whose power the giant fiend obeys;
What countless thousands tribute bring
For happier homes and brighter days!

3 Thou wilt not break the bruisèd reed,
Nor leave the broken heart unbound:
The wife regains a husband freed,
The orphan clasps a father found.

4 Spare, Lord, the thoughtless, guide the blind,
Till man no more shall deem it just
To live by forging chains to bind
His weaker brother in the dust.

Hymns of the Spirit

592 (Mariner's Song)

All for Christ

1 With my substance I will honor
My Redeemer and my Lord;
Were ten thousand worlds my manor,
All were nothing to his word.
While the heralds of salvation
His abounding grace proclaim,
Let his friends, of every station,
Gladly join to spread his fame.

2 Be his kingdom now promoted;
Let the earth her Monarch know;
Be my all to him devoted;
To my Lord my all I owe.
Praise the Saviour, all ye nations;
Praise him, all ye hosts above;
Shout, with joyful acclamations,
His divine, victorious love.

Thou who art ever nigh,
Guarding with watchful eye,

Thanksgiving for the Faithful

1 For all thy gifts we praise thee, Lord,
With lifted song and bended knee;
But now our thanks are chiefly poured
For those who taught us to be free.

2 For when the soul lay bound below
A heavy yoke of forms and creeds,
And none thy word of truth could know,
O'ergrown with tares and choked with weeds,—

3 The monarch's sword, the prelate's pride,
The church's curse, the empire's ban,
By one poor monk were all defied,
Who never feared the face of man.

4 With lifted song and bended knee,
For all thy gifts we praise thee, Lord;
But chief for those who made us free —
The champions of thy holy word.

Beginning of the Year

1 Break, new-born year, on glad eyes break!
Melodious voices move!

But Lord, thy smile still beams;
Our sins are swelling evermore;
But pardoning grace still streams.

More glory, more delight!
O make its hours less sad with sin,
Its days with thee more bright!

4 O golden then the hours must be!
The year must needs be sweet;
Yes, Lord, with happy melody
Thine opening grace we greet.

Seed-time and Harvest

1 Fountain of mercy, God of love,
How rich thy bounties are,
The rolling seasons, as they move,
Proclaim thy constant care.

2 When in the bosom of the earth
The sower hides the grain,
Thy goodness marks its secret birth,
And sends the early rain.

3 The spring's sweet influence, Lord is thine;
The plants in beauty grow;
Thou giv'st the summer's suns to shine,
The mild, refreshing dew.

4 We own and bless thy gracious sway;
Thy hand all nature hails;
Seed-time nor harvest, night nor day,
Summer nor winter fails.

Suffer Little Children to Come unto Me

1 Jesus, thou Shepherd of the sheep,
Thy little flock in safety keep;
These lambs within thine arms now take,
Nor let them e'er thy fold forsake.

2 Secure them from the scorching beam,
And lead them to the living stream;
In verdant pastures let them lie,
And watch them with a shepherd's eye.

3 Lord, bring thy sheep that wander yet;
And let their number be complete;
Then let the flock from earth remove,
And reach the heavenly fold above,

Early Piety

1 Hark! 'tis your heavenly Father's call,
How soft the charming accents fall;
"Ask and receive, my son," he cries,
With loving heart and melting eyes.

2 Lord, I accept thine offered grace,
I come to seek my Father's face,
Nor will he turn his ear away
Who taught my heart and lips to pray.

3 One thing I ask, and wilt thou hear,
And grant my soul a gift so dear?
Wisdom, descending from above,
The sweetest token of thy love;

4 Wisdom betimes to know the Lord,
To fear his name and keep his word;
To lead my feet in paths of truth,
And guide and guard my wandering youth.

5 Then shouldst thou grant a length of days,
My life shall still proclaim thy praise;
Or early death my soul convey
To realms of everlasting day.

Happy is the Man That Findeth Wisdom

1 O, happy is the man who hears
Instruction's warning voice,
And who celestial wisdom makes
His early, only choice.

2 Wisdom hath treasures greater far
Than east and west unfold,
And her rewards more precious are
Than all the gain of gold.

3 She guides the young with innocence
In pleasure's paths to tread;
A crown of glory she bestows
Upon the hoary head.

4 According as her labors rise,
So her rewards increase;
Her ways are ways of pleasantness,
And all her paths are peace.

Scotch Paraphrases

626

Early Piety

1 When we devote our youth to God,
'Tis pleasing in his eyes;
A flower, when offered in the bud,
Is no vain sacrifice.

2 'Tis easier work if we begin
To fear the Lord betimes;
For sinners who grow old in sin
Are hardened in their crimes.

3 It saves us from a thousand snares
To mind religion young;
Grace will preserve succeeding years
And make our virtues strong.

4 To thee, almighty God, to thee
May we our hearts resign;
'Twill please us to look back and see
That our whole lives were thine.

Had ever spurned at Heaven's control,

Fright our approaching souls away;
We still shrink back again to life,
Fond of our prison and our clay.

3 O, if my Lord would come and meet,
My soul should stretch her wings in haste,
Fly fearless through death's iron gate,
Nor feel the terrors as she passed.

4 Jesus can make a dying bed
Feel soft as downy pillows are,
While on his breast I lean my head,
And breathe my life out sweetly there

654 Sorrow Not, Even as Others

1 Dear as thou wast, and justly dear,
We will not weep for thee: [tear:
One thought shall check the starting
It is, that thou art free.

2 And thus shall faith's consoling power
The tears of love restrain:
O, who that saw thy parting hour,
Could wish thee back again?

2 Triumphant in thy closing eye
The hope of glory shone;
Joy breathed in thine expiring sigh,
To think the fight was won.

4 Gently the passing spirit fled,
Sustained by grace divine;
O, may such grace on me be shed,
And make my end like thine!

655 Number Our Days

1 Beneath our feet and o'er our head
Is equal warning given;
Beneath us lie the countless dead,
Above us is the heaven.

2 Death rides on every passing breeze,
And lurks in every flower;
Each season has its own disease,
Its peril every hour.

3 Turn, mortal turn! thy soul apply
To truths divinely given;
The dead, who underneath thee lie,
Shall live for hell or heaven!

Death of the Young

HEMANS — J. B. DYKES

1. Calm on the bo - som of thy God, Young spir - it, rest thee now:
2. Dust to its nar - row house be - neath; Soul to its place on high:
3. Lone are the paths, and sad the bow'rs, Whence thy meek smile is gone;

Death of the Young

1 When blooming youth is snatched away
By death's resistless hand,
Our hearts the mournful tribute pay
Which pity must demand.

2 Let this vain world engage no more:
Behold the opening tomb:
It bids us seize the present hour:
Tomorrow death may come.

3 O, let us fly,— to Jesus fly!
Whose powerful arm can save;
Then shall our hopes ascend on high,
And triumph o'er the grave.

4 Great God, thy sovereign grace impart,
With cleansing, healing power;
This only can prepare the heart
For death's surprising hour.

4 My Father's house on high —
Home of my soul! how near,
At times, to faith's foreseeing eye
Thy golden gates appear!
Yet clouds still intervene,
And all my comfort flies;
Like Noah's dove I flit between
Rough seas and stormy skies.

5 Anon the clouds depart,
The winds and waters cease;
While sweetly o'er my gladdened heart
Expands the bow of peace.
And then I feel that he,— Remembered or forgot,—
The Lord is never far from me,
Though I preceive him not.

These bod-ies soon will moul-der In the dark and si-lent tomb. There is sweet rest in heav'n,

But we'll o'ercome these powers, And hour-ly watch and pray.

3. All the lov - ing links that bind us, While the days are go - ing by;

But the seeds of good we sow, Both in shade and shine will grow,
Oh, the good that we may do, While the days are go - ing by.
Help your fall - en broth - ers rise, While the days are go - ing by.
And will keep our hearts a - glow, While the days are go - ing by.

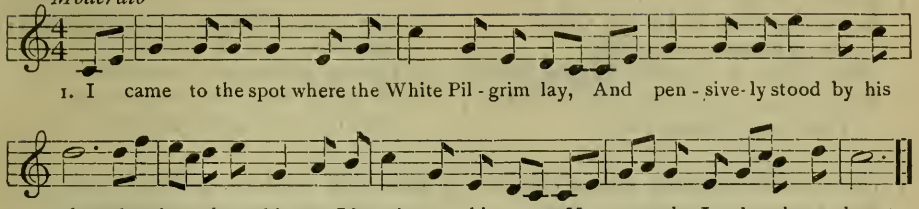
711 The White Pilgrim

Rev. JOHN ELLIS



Moderato
1. I came to the spot where the White Pil - grim lay, And pen - sive - ly stood by his tomb; When in a low whis-per I heard some-thing say, "How sweet-ly I sleep here a-lone!

2 "The tempest may howl, and the loud thunders roll —
And gathering clouds may arise —
Yet calm are my feelings, at rest is my soul,
The tears are all wiped from my eyes.

3 "I wandered an exile and stranger below,
To publish salvation abroad;
The trump of the gospel endeavored to blow,
Inviting poor sinners to God.

4 "But when among strangers and far from home —
No kindred or relative nigh —
I met the contagion and sank in the tomb,
My spirit ascending on high.

5 "Go tell my companions and children most dear,
To weep not for Joseph, though gone;
The same hand that led me through scenes dark and drear
Has kindly conducted me home."

Rev. JOHN ELLIS

NOTE. Joseph Thomas, called the "White Pilgrim" because of his garb, was one of the pioneers of the Christian denomination, born in North Carolina, March 7, 1791. He began preaching when only 17 years old, laboring most of his ministry as an itinerant. He was striken with smallpox at Johnsonburg, N. J., where he died April 9, 1835.

712 Dedication Hymn

1 O thou, who reign'st enthroned in light,
Whom heavenly hosts obey;
Creation owns thy boundless might;
Thou rul'st with potent sway.

2 This house we dedicate to thee;
Here shall thy praise be sung;
Here may thy saints in unity
Employ the tuneful tongue.

3 Here may thy sacred word be taught,
Our only rule obeyed;
Here by almighty power wrought,
Be wondrous grace displayed.

4 Humbled beneath thy wondrous power
We at thy footstool fall;
Thine be this consecrated hour;
Thine be our lives, our all.

713 Christ's Baptism

1 Salem's bright King, Jesus by name,
In ancient time to Jordan came,
All righteousness to fill;
'Twas there the ancient Baptist stood,
Whose name was John, a man of God,
To do his Master's will.

2 Down to old Jordan's rolling stream
The Baptist led the holy Lamb,
And there did him baptize;
Jehovah saw his darling Son,
And was well pleased with what he'd done,
And owned him from the skies.

3 "This is my Son," Jehovah cries;
On him to rest the Spirit flies,
"O children, hear ye him;"
Hark! 'tis his voice; behold, he cries,
"Repent, believe, and be baptized,
And wash away your sins."

4 Come, children, come; his voice obey;
Salem's bright King has marked the way,
And has a crown prepared;
O then arise and give consent,
Walk in the way that Jesus went,
And have the great reward.

5 Believing children, gather round,
And let your joyful songs abound,
With cheerful hearts arise;
See, here is water, here is room.
A loving Saviour calling, "Come,
O children, be baptized."

6 Behold! his servant waiting stands,
With willing heart and ready hands,
To wait upon the bride;
Ye candidates, your hearts prepare,
And let us join in solemn prayer,
Down by the water side.

CLEMENT PHINNEY.

714 Reunion Hymn

1 Anon the wild winds blew,
At length the dread storm came,
The Union rent in two —
Brought sorrow, grief and shame.

CHORUS.

Rejoice, the storm is o'er,
And peace and love now reign.
We'll work as ne'er before,
We'll rally now again.

2 War's fierce and dreadful strife
Burst forth with savage yell,
And brave men yielded life,
Till countless thousands fell.

3 The church was rent in twain,
And Christians fell apart;
The very thought brings pain
To each true brother's heart.

4 Swift time has flown since then,
Our sep'rate paths we've trod,
The Nation's one again,
And we are one for God.

5 Let all the wide world o'er
Know we are one in love,
And never, never more
Will strive as we have strove.

6 God haste the glorious day,
When all divided bands
Shall be,— as Christians say,—
One host throughout all lands.

Rev. D. E. MILLARD, D.D.

NOTE. This hymn was written for use at the American Christian Convention, to commemorate the reunion of the Southern and Northern branches of the Christian Denomination, and was sung at Marion, Ind., Oct. 11, 1890, after a separation of thirty-six years.

Praise for Jehovah's Mercies

Bless Jehovah, O my soul; And all that is within me, bless his holy name.
Bless Jehovah, O my soul; And forget not all his benefits.

Who forgiveth all thine iniquities; Who healeth all thy diseases;
Who redeemeth thy life from destruction; Who crowneth thee with lovingkindness and tender mercies.

Who satisfieth thy desire with good things, So that thy youth is renewed like the eagle.
Jehovah executeth righteous acts, And judgments for all that are oppressed.

He made known his ways unto Moses, His doings unto the children of Israel.
Jehovah is merciful and gracious, Slow to anger and abundant in lovingkindness.

He will not always chide; Neither will he keep his anger forever.
He hath not dealt with us after our sins, Nor rewarded us after our iniquities.

For as the heavens are high above the earth, So great is his lovingkindness toward them that fear him.
As far as the east is from the west, So far hath he removed our transgressions from us.

Like as a father pitieth his children, So Jehovah pitieth them that fear him.
For he knoweth our frame; He remembereth that we are dust.

As for man, his days are as grass; As a flower of the field, so he flourisheth.
For the wind passeth over it, and it is gone; And the place thereof shall know it no more.

But the lovingkindness of Jehovah is from everlasting to everlasting upon them that fear him,
And his righteousness unto children's children;

To such as keep his covenant, And to those that remember his precepts to do them.
Jehovah hath established his throne in the heavens; And his kingdom ruleth over all.

Bless Jehovah, ye his angels, That are mighty in strength, that fulfil his word,
Harkening unto the voice of his word.

Bless Jehovah, all ye his hosts, Ye ministers of his, that do his pleasure.
Bless Jehovah, all ye his works.
In all places of his dominion;
Bless Jehovah, O my soul.

Delight in God's House

How amiable are thy tabernacles, O Jehovah of hosts!
My soul longeth, yea, even fainteth for the courts of Jehovah;
My heart and my flesh cry out unto the living God.

Yea, the sparrow hath found her a house, And the swallow a nest for herself, where she may lay her young,
Even thine altars, O Jehovah of Hosts, My King and my God.

Blessed are they that dwell in thy house;
They will be still praising thee.

Blessed is the man whose strength is in thee;
In whose heart are the highways to Zion.

Passing through the valley of Weeping they make it a place of springs;
Yea, the early rain covereth it with blessings.

They go from strength to strength;
Every one of them appeareth before God in Zion.

O Jehovah God of hosts, hear my prayer;
Give ear, O God of Jacob.

Behold, O God our shield, And look upon the face of thine anointed.
For a day in thy courts is better than a thousand.

I had rather be a door-keeper in the house of my God,
Than to dwell in the tents of wickedness.

For Jehovah God is a sun and a shield;
Jehovah will give grace and glory;

No good thing will he withhold from them that walk uprightly.
O Jehovah of hosts, Blessed is the man that trusteth in thee.

Blessed is the man whom thou choosest, and causest to approach unto thee,
That he may dwell in thy courts.
We shall be satisfied with the goodness of thy house,
Thy holy temple.

For Jehovah hath chosen Zion;
He hath desired it for his habitation.
This is my resting-place for ever;

Here will I dwell; for I have desired it.
I will abundantly bless her provision:
I will satisfy her poor with bread.
Her priests also will I clothe with salvation;
And her saints shall shout aloud for joy.

Selection 3

Praise to the Creator

Rejoice in Jehovah, O ye righteous.
Praise is comely for the upright.
Give thanks unto Jehovah with the harp;
Sing praises unto him with the psaltry of ten strings.
Sing unto him a new song; Play skilfully with a loud noise.
For the word of Jehovah is right;
And all his work is done in faithfulness.
He loveth righteousness and justice:
The earth is full of the lovingkindness of Jehovah.
By the word of Jehovah were the heavens made,
And all the host of them by the breath of his mouth.
He gathereth the waters of the sea together as a heap:
He layeth up the deeps in storehouses.
Let all the earth fear Jehovah:
Let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of him.
For he spake, and it was done;
He commanded, and it stood fast.
Jehovah bringeth the counsel of the nations to naught.
He maketh the thoughts of the peoples to be of no effect.
The counsel of Jehovah standeth fast for ever,
The thoughts of his heart to all generations.
Blessed be the nation whose God is Jehovah,
The people whom he hath chosen for his own inheritance.
Jehovah looketh from heaven;
He beholdeth all the sons of men;
From the place of his habitation he looketh forth
Upon all the inhabitants of the earth,
He that fashioneth the hearts of them all,
That considereth all their works.
Behold, the eye of Jehovah is upon them that fear him,
Upon them that hope in his lovingkindness;

To deliver their soul from death,
And to keep them alive in famine.
Our soul hath waited for Jehovah:
He is our help and our shield.
For our hearts shall rejoice in him,
Because we have trusted in his holy name.
Let thy lovingkindness, O Jehovah, be upon us,
According as we have hoped in thee.

Selection 4

Call to Praise Jehovah

O sing unto Jehovah a new song:
Sing unto Jehovah, all the earth.
Sing unto Jehovah, bless his name;
Show forth his salvation from day to day.
Declare his glory among the nations,
His marvelous works among all the peoples.
For great is Jehovah, and greatly to be praised:
He is to be feared above all gods.
For all the gods of the peoples are idols;
But Jehovah made the heavens.
Honor and majesty are before him;
Strength and beauty are in his sanctuary.
Ascribe unto Jehovah, ye kindreds of the peoples,
Ascribe unto Jehovah glory and strength.
Ascribe unto Jehovah the glory due unto his name;
Bring an offering and come into his courts.
O worship Jehovah in holy array:
Tremble before him, all the earth.
Say among the nations, Jehovah reigneth:
The world also is established that it can not be moved:
He will judge the peoples with equity.
Let the heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice;
Let the sea roar, and the fulness thereof;
Let the field exult, and all that is therein;
Then shall all the trees of the wood sing for joy
Before Jehovah; for he cometh,
For he cometh to judge the earth:
He will judge the world with righteousness,

And the peoples with his truth.
O sing unto Jehovah a new song;
For he hath done marvelous things.
His right hand, and his holy arm, hath wrought salvation for him.
Jehovah hath made known his salvation:
His righteousness hath he openly showed in the sight of the nations.
He hath remembered his lovingkindness and his faithfulness toward the house of Israel:
All the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.
Make a joyful noise unto Jehovah, all the earth:
Break forth and sing for joy, yea, sing praises.
Sing praises unto Jehovah with the harp;
With the harp and the voice of melody.
With trumpets and sound of cornet
Make a joyful noise before the King, Jehovah.
Let the sea roar, and the fulness thereof;
The world, and they that dwell therein;
Let the floods clap their hands;
Let the hills sing for joy together
Before Jehovah; for he cometh to judge the earth;
He will judge the world with righteousness,
And the peoples with equity.

Selection 5

Fearless Trust in God

Jehovah is my light and my salvation; Whom shall I fear?
Jehovah is the strength of my life; Of whom shall I be afraid?
When evil-doers came upon me to eat up my flesh,
Even mine adversaries and my foes, they stumbled and fell.
Though a host should encamp against me, My heart shall not fear:
Though war should rise against me,
Even then will I be confident.
One thing have I asked of Jehovah, that will I seek after;
That I may dwell in the house of Jehovah all the days of my life,
To behold the beauty of Jehovah,
And to inquire in his temple.
For in the day of trouble he will keep me secretly in his pavilion:
In the covert of his tabernacle will he hide me;
He will lift me up upon a rock.
And now shall my head be lifted up above mine enemies round about me;

And I will offer in his tabernacle sacrifices of joy ;
I will sing, yea, I will sing praises unto Jehovah.
Hear, O Jehovah, when I cry with my voice :
Have mercy also upon me, and answer me.
When thou saidst, Seek ye my face ; my heart said unto thee,
Thy face, Jehovah, will I seek.
Hide not thy face from me ;
Put not thy servant away in anger:
Thou hast been my help ; Cast me not off, neither forsake me, O God of my salvation.
When my father and my mother forsake me, Then Jehovah will take me up.
Teach me thy way, O Jehovah ;
And lead me in a plain path, Because of mine enemies.
Deliver me not over unto the will of mine adversaries :
For false witnesses are risen up against me,
And such as breathe out cruelty.
I had fainted, unless I had believed to see the goodness of Jehovah
In the land of the living.
Wait for Jehovah : Be strong, and let thy heart take courage ;
Yea, wait thou for Jehovah.

The Whole Creation Called to Praise Jehovah

Praise ye Jehovah. Praise ye Jehovah from the heavens ;
Praise him in the heights. Praise ye him, all his angels. Praise ye him, all his host.
Praise ye him, sun and moon :
Praise him, all ye stars of light.
Praise him, ye heavens of heavens,
And ye waters that are above the heavens.
Let them praise the name of Jehovah ;
For he commanded, and they were created.
He hath also established them for ever and ever :
He hath made a decree which shall not pass away.
Praise Jehovah from the earth,
Ye sea-monsters, and all deeps ;
Fire and hail, snow and vapor ;
Stormy wind, fulfilling his word ;

Mountains and all hills; Fruitful trees and all cedars;
Beasts and all cattle; Creeping things and flying birds;
Kings of the earth and all peoples;
Princes and all judges of the earth;
Both young men and virgins;
Old men and children:
Let them praise the name of Jehovah;
For his name alone is exalted;
His glory is above the earth and the heavens.
And he hath lifted up the horn of his people,
The praise of all his saints;
Even of the children of Israel, a people near unto him.
Praise ye Jehovah.
Sing unto Jehovah a new song,
And his praise in the assembly of his saints.
Let Israel rejoice in him that made him:
Let the children of Zion be joyful in their King.
For Jehovah taketh pleasure in his people:
He will beautify the meek with salvation.
Let the saints exult in glory:
Let them sing for joy upon their beds.
Let the high praises of God be in their mouth.
Praise ye Jehovah.
Praise God in his sanctuary:
Praise him in the firmament of his power.
Praise him for his mighty acts:
Praise him according to his excellent greatness.
Let every thing that hath breath praise Jehovah. Praise ye Jehovah.

The Security of Trust in Jehovah

Fret not thyself because of evil-doers,
Neither be thou envious against them that work unrighteousness.
For they shall soon be cut down like the grass,
And wither as the green herb.
Trust in Jehovah, and do good;
Dwell in the land and feed on his faithfulness.

Delight thyself also in Jehovah;
And he will give thee the desires of thy heart.

Commit thy way unto Jehovah;
Trust also in him, and he will bring it to pass.

And he will make thy righteousness to go forth as the light,
And thy justice as the noonday.

Rest in Jehovah, and wait patiently for him:
Fret not thyself because of him who prospereth in his way,
Because of the man who bringeth wicked devices to pass.

Cease from anger, and forsake wrath:
Fret not thyself, it tendeth only to evil-doing.

For evil-doers shall be cut off;
But those that wait for Jehovah, they shall inherit the land.

For yet a little while, and the wicked shall not be:
Yea, thou shalt diligently consider his place, and he shall not be.

But the meek shall inherit the land,
And shall delight themselves in the abundance of peace.

Jehovah upholdeth the righteous.
Jehovah knoweth the days of the perfect; And their inheritance shall be for ever.

For such as are blessed of him shall inherit the land;
And they that are cursed of him shall be cut off.

Depart from evil and do good; And dwell for evermore.
For Jehovah loveth justice, and forsaketh not his saints; They are preserved for ever:

The righteous shall inherit the land,
And dwell therein for ever.
The mouth of the righteous talketh of wisdom,
And his tongue speaketh justice.

The law of his God is in his heart;
None of his steps shall slide.

Wait for Jehovah, and keep his way,
And he will exalt thee to inherit the land:
Mark the perfect man, and behold the upright;

For there is a happy end to the man of peace.
The salvation of the righteous is of Jehovah:

He is their stronghold in the time of trouble.
And Jehovah helpeth them, and rescueth them:

He rescueth them from the wicked, and saveth them,
Because they have taken refuge in him.

Selection 8

Praise for Jehovah's Deliverance

O give thanks unto Jehovah; for he is good;
For his lovingkindness endureth for ever.

Let the redeemed of Jehovah say so,
Whom he hath redeemed from the hand of the adversary,

And gathered out of the lands,
From the east and from the west,
From the north and from the south.

Oh that men would praise Jehovah for his lovingkindness,
And for his wonderful works to the children of men!

For he satisfieth the longing soul,
And the hungry soul he filleth with good.

For he hath broken the gates of brass,
And cut the bars of iron in sunder.

Fools because of their transgression,
And because of their iniquities, are afflicted.
Their soul abhorreth all manner of food;
And they draw near unto the gates of death.

Then they cry unto Jehovah in their trouble,
And he saveth them out of their distresses.

He sendeth his word, and healeth them,
And delivereth them from their destructions.

Oh that men would praise Jehovah for his lovingkindness,
And for his wonderful works to the children of men!

And let them offer the sacrifices of thanksgiving,
And declare his works with singing.

They that go down to the sea in ships,
That do business in great waters;
These see the works of Jehovah,
And his wonders in the deep.

For he commandeth, and raiseth the stormy wind,
Which lifteth up the waves thereof.

They mount up to the heavens, they go down again to the depths:
Their soul melteth away because of trouble.

They reel to and fro, and stagger like a drunken man,
And are at their wits' end.

Then they cry unto Jehovah in their trouble,
And he bringeth them out of their distresses.

He maketh the storm a calm,
So that the waves thereof are still.
Then are they glad because they are quiet;
So he bringeth them unto their desired haven.
Oh that men would praise Jehovah for his lovingkindness,
And for his wonderful works to the children of men!
Let them exalt him also in the assembly of the people,
And praise him in the seat of the elders.
Whoso is wise will give heed to these things;
And they will consider the lovingkindnesses of Jehovah.

Selection 9

The Godly Man

Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the wicked,
Nor standeth in the way of sinners,
Nor sitteth in the seat of scoffers:
But his delight is in the law of Jehovah;
And on his law doth he meditate day and night.
And he shall be like a tree planted by the streams of water,
That bringeth forth its fruit in its season,
Whose leaf also doth not wither;
And whatsoever he doeth shall prosper.
The wicked are not so, But are like the chaff which the wind driveth away.
Therefore the wicked shall not stand in the judgment,
Nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.
For Jehovah knoweth the way of the righteous;
But the way of the wicked shall perish.
Jehovah, who shall sojourn in thy tabernacle?
Who shall dwell in thy holy hill?
He that walketh uprightly, and worketh righteousness,
And speaketh truth in his heart;
He that slandereth not with his tongue,
Nor doeth evil to his friend,
Nor taketh up a reproach against his neighbor;
In whose eyes a reprobate is despised,
But who honoreth them that fear Jehovah;
He that sweareth to his own hurt, and changeth not;
He that putteth not out his money to interest,

Nor taketh reward against the innocent.
He that doeth these things shall never be moved.
Blessed is the man that feareth Jehovah,
That delighteth greatly in his commandments.
His seed shall be mighty upon earth:
The generation of the upright shall be blessed.
Unto the upright there ariseth light in the darkness:
He is gracious, and merciful, and righteous.
The righteous shall be had in everlasting remembrance.
He shall not be afraid of evil tidings:
His heart is fixed, trusting in Jehovah.
His heart is established, he shall not be afraid,
Until he see his desire upon his adversaries.
His righteousness endureth for ever.

Selection 10

The Works and Word of God

The heavens declare the glory of God; And the firmament showeth his handiwork.
Day unto day uttereth speech, And night unto night showeth knowledge.
There is no speech nor language;
Their voice is not heard.
Their line is gone out through all the earth,
And their words to the end of the world.
In them hath he set a tabernacle for the sun,
Which is as a bridegroom coming out of his chamber,
And rejoiceth as a strong man to run his course.
His going forth is from the end of the heavens,
And his circuit unto the ends of it;
And there is nothing hid from the heat thereof.
The law of Jehovah is perfect, restoring the soul;
The testimony of Jehovah is sure, making wise the simple.
The precepts of Jehovah are right, rejoicing the heart:
The commandment of Jehovah is pure, enlightening the eyes.
The fear of Jehovah is clean, enduring for ever:
The ordinances of Jehovah are true, and righteous altogether.
More to be desired are they than gold, yea, than much fine gold;

Sweeter also than honey and the droppings of the honeycomb.
Moreover by them is thy servant warned:
In keeping them there is great reward.
Who can discern his errors?
Clear thou me from hidden faults.
Keep back thy servant also from presumptuous sins;
Let them not have dominion over me:
Then shall I be upright, And I shall be clear from great transgression.
Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart Be acceptable in thy sight,
O Jehovah, my rock, and my redeemer.

Selection 11

The Law of God

Blessed are they that are perfect in the way,
Who walk in the law of Jehovah.
Blessed are they that keep his testimonies,
That seek him with the whole heart.
Thou hast commanded us thy precepts.
That we should observe them diligently.
Oh that my ways were established
To observe thy statutes!
Thy word have I laid up in my heart,
That I might not sin against thee.
I have rejoiced in the way of thy testimonies,
As much as in all riches.
I will meditate on thy precepts,
And have respect unto thy ways.
I will delight myself in thy statutes:
I will not forget thy word.
Open thou mine eyes, that I may behold Wondrous things out of thy law.
Make me to understand the way of thy precepts:
So shall I meditate on thy wondrous works.
I cleave unto thy testimonies:
O Jehovah, put me not to shame.
I will run the way of thy commandments,
When thou shalt enlarge my heart.
Teach me, O Jehovah, the way of thy statutes;
And I shall keep it unto the end.

Give me understanding, and I shall keep thy law;
Yea, I will observe it with my whole heart.
Behold, I have longed after thy precepts:
Quicken me in thy righteousness.
I will delight myself in thy commandments,
Which I have loved.
Thy statutes have been my songs
In the house of my pilgrimage.
I will never forget thy precepts;
For with them thou hast quickened me.
Oh how love I thy law!
It is my meditation all the day.
I have not turned aside from thine ordinances;
For thou hast taught me.
How sweet are thy words unto my taste!
Yea, sweeter than honey to my mouth!
Thy word is a lamp unto my feet,
And light unto my path.
Thy testimonies have I taken as a heritage for ever:
For they are the rejoicing of my heart.
Thy testimonies are wonderful;
Therefore doth my soul keep them.
The opening of thy words giveth light;
It giveth understanding unto the simple.
Thy word is very pure;
Therefore thy servant loveth it.
Thy testimonies are righteous for ever:
Give me understanding and I shall live.
Consider how I love thy precepts:
Quicken me, O Jehovah, according to thy lovingkindness.
The sum of thy word is truth;
And every one of thy righteous ordinances endureth for ever.
Great peace have they that love thy law;
And they have no occasion of stumbling.
My soul hath observed thy testimonies;
And I love them exceedingly.
I have observed thy precepts and thy testimonies;
For all my ways are before thee.
I have longed for thy salvation, O Jehovah;
And thy law is my delight.

Selection 12

Praise for Prosperity

Praise ye Jehovah; For it is good to sing praises unto our God;
For it is pleasant, and praise is comely.
Great is our Lord, and mighty in power;
His understanding is infinite.
Jehovah upholdeth the meek:
He bringeth the wicked down to the ground.
Sing unto Jehovah with thanksgiving;
Sing praises upon the harp unto our God:
Who covereth the heavens with clouds,
Who prepareth rain for the earth,
Who maketh grass to grow upon the mountains.
He giveth to the beast his food,
And to the young ravens which cry.
He delighteth not in the strength of the horse:
He taketh no pleasure in the legs of a man.
Jehovah taketh pleasure in them that fear him,
In those that hope in his lovingkindness.
Praise Jehovah, O Jerusalem;
Praise thy God, O Zion.
For he hath strengthened the bars of thy gates;
He hath blessed thy children within thee.
He maketh peace in thy borders;
He filleth thee with the finest of the wheat.
He sendeth out his commandment upon earth;
His word runneth very swiftly.
He giveth snow like wool:
He scattereth the hoar-frost like ashes.
He casteth forth his ice like morsels:
Who can stand before his cold?
He sendeth out his word, and melteth them:
He causeth his winds to blow, and the waters flow.
He showeth his word unto Jacob,
His statutes and his ordinances unto Israel.
He hath not dealt so with any nation:
And as for his ordinances, they have not known them.
Praise ye Jehovah.

Selection 13

Jehovah and His People

I will lift up mine eyes unto the mountains: from whence shall my help come?

My help cometh from Jehovah, who made heaven and earth.

He will not suffer thy foot to be moved: he that keepeth thee will not slumber.

Behold, he that keepeth Israel will neither slumber nor sleep.

Jehovah is thy keeper: Jehovah is thy shade upon thy right hand.

The sun shall not smite thee by day, nor the moon by night.

Jehovah will keep thee from all evil; he will keep thy soul.

Jehovah will keep thy going out and thy coming in from this time forth and for evermore.

I was glad when they said unto me,

Let us go unto the house of Jehovah.

Our feet are standing within thy gates, O Jerusalem,

Jerusalem that art builded as a city that is compact together;

Whither the tribes go up, even the tribes of Jehovah, for an ordinance for Israel,

To give thanks unto the name of Jehovah.

For there are set thrones for judgment, the thrones of the house of David.

Pray for the peace of Jerusalem;

They shall prosper that love thee.

Peace be within thy walls, and prosperity within thy palaces.

For my brethren and companions' sakes, I will now say, Peace be within thee.

For the sake of the house of Jehovah our God I will seek thy good.

Unto thee do I lift up mine eyes, O thou that sittest in the heavens.

Behold, as the eyes of servants look unto the hand of their master, as the eyes of a maid unto the hand of her mistress;

So our eyes look unto Jehovah our God, until he have mercy upon us.

They that trust in Jehovah are as Mount Zion, which can not be moved, but abideth for ever.

As the mountains are round about Jerusalem, so Jehovah is round about his people

From this time forth and for evermore.

Do good, O Jehovah unto those that are good, and to them that are upright in their hearts.

Peace be upon Israel.

Selection 14

Jehovah Our Refuge

God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble.
Therefore will we not fear, though the earth do change, and though the mountains be shaken into the heart of the seas;

Though the waters thereof roar and be troubled, though the mountains tremble with the swelling thereof.
There is a river, the streams whereof make glad the city of God, the holy place of the tabernacles of the Most High.

God is in the midst of her: she shall not be moved:
God will help her, and that right early.

The nations raged, the kingdoms were moved: he uttered his voice, the earth melted.
Jehovah of hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is our refuge.

Come, behold the works of Jehovah,
What desolations he hath made in the earth.
He maketh wars to cease unto the end of the earth;
He breaketh the bow, and cutteth the spear in sunder;

He burneth the chariots in the fire.
Be still, and know that I am God:

I will be exalted among the nations,
I will be exalted in the earth.
Jehovah of hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is our refuge.

Oh clap your hands, all ye peoples;
Shout unto God with the voice of triumph.

For Jehovah Most High is terrible; he is a great King over all the earth.
He subdueth peoples under us, and nations under our feet.

He chooseth our inheritance for us,
The glory of Jacob whom he loved.
God is gone up with a shout, Jehovah with the sound of a trumpet.

Sing praises to God, sing praises;
Sing praises unto our King, sing praises.

For God is the King of all the earth;
Sing ye praises with understanding.

God reigneth over the nations;
God sitteth upon his holy throne.

The princes of the peoples are gathered together, to be the people of the God of Abraham:
For the shields of the earth belong unto God; he is greatly exalted.

Selection 15

Jehovah Our Trust and Shepherd

He that dwelleth in the secret place of the Most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.

I will say of Jehovah, He is my refuge and my fortress; my God in whom I trust.

For he will deliver thee from the snare of the fowler, and from the deadly pestilence.

He will cover thee with his pinions, and under his wings shalt thou take refuge:

His truth is a shield and buckler.

Thou shalt not be afraid for the terror by night, nor for the arrow that flieth by day;

For the pestilence that walketh in darkness, nor for the destruction that wasteth at noonday.

A thousand shall fall at thy side, And ten thousand at thy right hand;

But it shall not come nigh thee.

Only with thine eyes shalt thou behold, and see the reward of the wicked.

For thou, O Jehovah, art my refuge!

Thou hast made the Most High thy habitation;

There shall no evil befall thee,

Neither shall any plague come nigh thy tent.

For he will give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways.

They shall bear thee up in their hands, Lest thou dash thy foot against a stone.

Thou shalt tread upon the lion and adder:

The young lion and the serpent shalt thou trample under foot.

Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him:

I will set him on high, because he hath known my name.

He shall call upon me, and I will answer him;

I will be with him in trouble: I will deliver him, and honor him.

With long life will I satisfy him, and show him my salvation.

Jehovah is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; he leadeth me beside still waters.

He restoreth my soul: he guideth me in paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,

I will fear no evil; for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff, they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies;
Thou hast anointed my head with oil; My cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and lovingkindness shall follow me all the days of my life;
And I shall dwell in the house of Jehovah for ever.

Selection 16

Jehovah Our Portion and Deliverer

Preserve me, O God; for in thee do I take refuge.
O my soul, thou hast said unto Jehovah, Thou art my Lord: I have no good beyond thee.

As for the saints that are in the earth, they are the excellent in whom is all my delight.
Their sorrows shall be multiplied that give gifts for another god:

Their drink-offerings of blood will I not offer, nor take their names upon my lips.
Jehovah is the portion of mine inheritance and of my cup:

Thou maintainest my lot.
The lines are fallen unto me in pleasant places; yea I have a goodly heritage.

I will bless Jehovah, who hath given me counsel;
Yea, my heart instructeth me in the night seasons.

I have set Jehovah always before me:
Because he is at my right hand, I shall not be moved.

Therefore my heart is glad, and my glory rejoiceth: my flesh also shall dwell in safety.
For thou wilt not leave my soul to Sheol; Neither wilt thou suffer thy holy one to see corruption.

Thou wilt show me the path of life:
In thy presence is fulness of joy;
In thy right hand there are pleasures for evermore.

I love Jehovah, because he heareth my voice and my supplications.
Because he hath inclined his ear unto me, Therefore will I call upon him as long as I live.

The cords of death compassed me, and the pains of Sheol gat hold upon me:
I found trouble and sorrow.
Then called I upon the name of Jehovah:

O Jehovah, I beseech thee, deliver my soul.
Gracious is Jehovah, and righteous; Yea, our God is merciful.

Jehovah preserveth the simple:
I was brought low, and he saved me.

Return unto thy rest, O my soul;
For Jehovah hath dealt bountifully with thee.

What shall I render unto Jehovah for all his benefits toward me?
I will take the cup of salvation, and call upon the name of Jehovah.

I will pay my vows unto Jehovah, yea in the presence of all his people.
Precious in the sight of Jehovah is the death of his saints.

I am thy servant, the son of thy handmaid; thou hast loosed my bonds.
I will offer to thee the sacrifice of thanksgiving, and will call upon the name of Jehovah.

I will pay my vows unto Jehovah, yea in the presence of all his people.
In the courts of Jehovah's house, in the midst of thee, O Jerusalem. Praise ye Jehovah.

Selection 17

Jehovah the King of Glory

I will declare thy name unto my brethren: in the midst of the assembly will I praise thee.
Ye that fear Jehovah, praise him;

All ye seed of Jacob, glorify him;
And stand in awe of him, all ye the seed of Israel.

For he hath not despised nor abhorred the affliction of the afflicted;
Neither hath he hid his face from him; But when he cried unto him, he heard.

Of thee cometh my praise in the great assembly: I will pay my vows before them that fear him.
The meek shall eat and be satisfied; They shall praise Jehovah that seek after him:

Let your heart live for ever.
All the ends of the earth shall remember and turn unto Jehovah;

And all the kindreds of the nations shall worship before thee.
For the kingdom is Jehovah's; and he is the ruler over the nations.

The earth is Jehovah's and the fulness thereof; the world and they that dwell therein.
For he hath founded it upon the seas, And established it upon the floods.

Who shall ascend into the hill of Jehovah? and who shall stand in his holy place?
He that hath clean hands, and a pure heart;

Who hath not lifted up his soul unto falsehood, and hath not sworn deceitfully.

He shall receive a blessing from Jehovah, And righteousness from the God of his salvation.

This is the generation of them that seek after him, that seek thy face, even Jacob.

Lift up your heads, O ye gates; and be ye lifted up, ye everlasting doors;

And the King of glory will come in.

Who is the King of glory? Jehovah strong and mighty, Jehovah mighty in battle.

Lift up your heads, O ye gates; yea, lift them up, ye everlasting doors:

And the King of glory will come in.

Who is the King of glory?

Jehovah of hosts, he is the King of glory.

Selection 18

Jehovah's Goodness

I will extol thee, my God, O King;

And I will bless thy name for ever and ever.

Every day will I bless thee, and I will praise thy name for ever and ever.

Great is Jehovah, and greatly to be praised; and his greatness is unsearchable.

One generation shall laud thy works to another, and shall declare thy mighty acts.

Of the glorious majesty of thine honor, and of thy wondrous works, will I meditate.

And men shall speak of the might of thy terrible acts; and I will declare thy greatness.

They shall utter the memory of thy great goodness,

And shall sing of thy righteousness.

Jehovah is gracious and merciful;

Slow to anger, and of great lovingkindness.

Jehovah is good to all; and his tender mercies are over all his works.

All thy works shall give thanks unto thee, O Jehovah;

And thy saints shall bless thee.

They shall speak of the glory of thy kingdom, and talk of thy power;

To make known to the sons of men his mighty acts,

And the glory of the majesty of his kingdom.
Thy kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and thy dominion endureth throughout all generations.

Jehovah upholdeth all that fall,
And raiseth up all those that are bowed down.

The eyes of all wait for thee; and thou givest them their food in due season.
Thou openest thy hand, and satisfiest the desire of every living thing.

Jehovah is righteous in all his ways, and gracious in all his works.
Jehovah is nigh unto all them that call upon him,

To all that call upon him in truth.
He will fulfil the desire of them that fear him;
He also will hear their cry, and will save them.

Jehovah preserveth all them that love him; but all the wicked will he destroy.
My mouth shall speak the praise of Jehovah; and let all flesh bless his holy name for ever and ever.

Selection 19

Prayer for Guidance

Unto thee, O Jehovah, do I lift up my soul.
O my God, in thee have I trusted, let me not be put to shame;

Let not mine enemies triumph over me.
Yea, none that wait for thee shall be put to shame:

They shall be put to shame that deal treacherously without cause.
Show me thy ways, O Jehovah; teach me thy paths.

Guide me in thy truth, and teach me;
For thou art the God of my salvation:
For thee do I wait all the day.

Remember, O Jehovah, thy tender mercies and thy lovingkindnesses; for they have been ever of old.
Remember not the sins of my youth, nor my transgressions:

According to thy lovingkindness remember thou me, for thy goodness' sake, O Jehovah.
Good and upright is Jehovah;
Therefore will he instruct sinners in the way.

The meek will he guide in justice;
And the meek will he teach his way.

All the paths of Jehovah are lovingkindness and truth unto such as keep his covenant and his testimonies.
For thy name's sake, O Jehovah, pardon mine iniquity, for it is great.
What man is he that feareth Jehovah?
Him shall he instruct in the way that he shall choose.
His soul shall dwell at ease;
And his seed shall inherit the land.
The friendship of Jehovah is with them that fear him;
And he will show them his covenant.
Mine eyes are ever toward Jehovah;
For he will pluck my feet out of the net.
Turn thee unto me, and have mercy upon me; for I am desolate and afflicted.
The troubles of my heart are enlarged:
Oh bring thou me out of my distresses.
O keep my soul, and deliver me;
Let me not be put to shame, for I take refuge in thee.
Let integrity and uprightness preserve me, for I wait for thee.
Redeem Israel, O God, out of all his troubles.

Selection 20

Righteous Jehovah

I will sing of the lovingkindness of Jehovah for ever:
With my mouth will I make known thy faithfulness to all generations.
For I have said, Mercy shall be built up for ever;
Thy faithfulness wilt thou establish in the very heavens.
I have made a covenant with my chosen,
I have sworn unto David my servant:
Thy seed will I establish for ever,
And build up thy throne to all generations.
And the heavens shall praise thy wonders, O Jehovah;
Thy faithfulness also in the assembly of the holy ones.
For who in the skies can be compared unto Jehovah?
Who among the sons of the mighty is like unto Jehovah,
A God very terrible in the council of the holy ones,
And to be feared above all them that are round about him?
O Jehovah, God of hosts, who is a mighty one like unto thee, O Jehovah?
And thy faithfulness is round about thee.

Thou rulest the pride of the sea: when the waves thereof arise, thou stillest them.
The heavens are thine, the earth also is thine:
The world and the fulness thereof, thou hast founded them.
The north and the south, thou hast created them:
Tabor and Hermon rejoice in thy name.
Thou hast a mighty arm; strong is thy hand, and high is thy right hand.
Righteousness and justice are the foundation of thy throne:
Lovingkindness and truth go before thy face.
Blessed is the people that know the joyful sound:
They walk, O Jehovah, in the light of thy countenance.
In thy name do they rejoice all the day;
And in thy righteousness are they exalted.
For thou art the glory of their strength;
And in thy favor our horn shall be exalted.
For our shield belongeth unto Jehovah;
And our King to the holy One of Israel.
Blessed be Jehovah for ever more.

Selection 21

Prayer for Pardon

Have mercy upon me, O God, according to thy lovingkindness:
According to the multitude of thy tender mercies blot out my transgressions.
Wash me thoroughly from mine iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin.
For I know my transgressions;
And my sin is ever before me.
Against thee, thee only, have I sinned, and done that which is evil in thy sight;
That thou mayest be justified when thou speakest, and be clear when thou judgest.
Behold I was brought forth in iniquity; and in sin did my mother conceive me.
Behold, thou desirest truth in the inward parts;
And in the hidden part thou wilt make me to know wisdom.
Purify me with hyssop, and I shall be clean:
Wash me and I shall be whiter than snow.
Make me to hear joy and gladness, that the bones which thou hast broken may rejoice.

Hide thy face from my sins, and blot out all mine iniquities.
Create in me a clean heart, O God;
And renew a right spirit within me.
Cast me not away from thy presence;
And take not thy holy Spirit from me.
Restore unto me the joy of thy salvation;
And uphold me with a willing spirit.
Then will I teach transgressors thy ways; and sinners shall be converted unto thee.
Deliver me from bloodguiltiness, O God, thou God of my salvation;
And my tongue shall sing aloud of thy righteousness.
O Lord, open thou my lips; and my mouth shall show forth thy praise.
For thou delightest not in sacrifice; else would I give it;
Thou hast no pleasure in burnt-offering.
The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit: a broken and a contrite heart, O God, thou wilt not despise.
Do good in thy good pleasure unto Zion: Build thou the walls of Jerusalem.
Then wilt thou delight in the sacrifices of righteousness,
In burnt-offering and whole burnt-offering: then will they offer bullocks upon thine altar.

Selection 22

Jehovah a Provider and Deliverer

I will bless Jehovah at all times:
His praise shall continually be in my mouth.
My soul shall make her boast in Jehovah;
The meek shall hear thereof and be glad.
Oh magnify Jehovah with me, and let us exalt his name together.
I sought Jehovah, and he answered me,
And delivered me from all my fears.
They looked unto him, and were radiant; and their faces shall never be confounded.
This poor man cried, and Jehovah heard him, and delivered him,
And saved him out of all his troubles.
The angel of Jehovah encampeth round about them that fear him, and delivereth them.
Oh taste and see that Jehovah is good:
Blessed is the man that taketh refuge in him.

Oh fear Jehovah, ye his saints; for there is no want to them that fear him.
The young lions do lack, and suffer hunger; but they that seek Jehovah shall not want any good thing.
Come, ye children, hearken unto me:
I will teach you the fear of Jehovah.
What man is he that desireth life, and loveth many days, that he may see good?
Keep thy tongue from evil, and thy lips from speaking guile.
Depart from evil, and do good; seek peace and pursue it.
The eyes of Jehovah are toward the righteous, and his ears are open unto their cry.
The face of Jehovah is against them that do evil,
To cut off the remembrance of them from the earth.
The righteous cried, and Jehovah heard and delivered them out of all their troubles.
Jehovah is nigh unto them that are of a broken heart,
And saveth such as are of a contrite spirit.
Many are the afflictions of the righteous; but Jehovah delivereth him out of them all.
He keepeth all his bones: not one of them shall be broken.
Evil shall slay the wicked; and they that hate the righteous shall be condemned.
Jehovah redeemeth the soul of his servants;
And none of them that take refuge in him shall be condemned.

Selection 23

Man's Mortality

Lord, thou hast been our dwelling-place in all generations.
Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever thou hadst formed the earth and the world,
Even from everlasting to everlasting, thou art God.
Thou turnest man to destruction,
And sayest, Return, ye children of men.
For a thousand years in thy sight are but as yesterday when it is past,
And as a watch in the night.
Thou carriest them away as with a flood; they are as a sleep:
In the morning they are like grass which groweth up.

In the morning it flourisheth, and groweth up; in the evening it is cut down, and withereth.

For we are consumed in thine anger,
And in thy wrath are we troubled.

Thou hast set our iniquities before thee, our secret sins in the light of thy countenance.

For all our days are passed away in thy wrath: we bring our years to an end as a sigh.

The days of our years are threescore years and ten,

Or even by reason of strength fourscore years;

Yet is their pride but labor and sorrow;

For it is soon gone, and we fly away.

Who knoweth the power of thine anger,
And thy wrath according to the fear that is due unto thee?

So teach us to number our days, that we may get us a heart of wisdom.

Return, O Jehovah; how long?

And let it repent thee concerning thy servants.

Oh satisfy us in the morning with thy lovingkindness,

That we may rejoice and be glad all our days.

Make us glad according to the days wherein thou hast afflicted us,

And the years wherein we have seen evil.

Let thy work appear unto thy servants,

And thy glory upon their children.

And let the favor of the Lord our God be upon us;

And establish thou the work of our hands upon us; yea, the work of our hands establish thou it.

Selection 24

Jehovah Hears and Forgives

Unto thee, O Jehovah, will I call:

My rock, be not thou deaf unto me:

Lest, if thou be silent unto me, I become like them that go down into the pit.

Hear the voice of my supplications,
When I cry unto thee,

When I lift up my hands toward thy holy oracle.

Blessed be Jehovah, because he hath heard the voice of my supplications.

Jehovah is my strength and my shield;

My heart hath trusted in him, and I am helped:

Therefore my heart greatly rejoiceth,
And with my song will I praise him.
Jehovah is their strength, and he is a stronghold of salvation to his anointed.
Save thy people, and bless thine inheritance; be their shepherd also, and bear them up for ever.
Blessed is he whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered.
Blessed is the man unto whom Jehovah imputeth not iniquity, and in whose spirit there is no guile.
I acknowledge my sin unto thee, and mine iniquity did I not hide:
I said, I will confess my transgressions unto Jehovah; and thou forgavest the iniquity of my sin.
For this let every one that is godly pray unto thee in a time when thou mayest be found:
Surely when the great waters overflow they shall not reach unto him.
Thou art my hiding-place; thou wilt preserve me from trouble;
Thou wilt compass me about with songs of deliverance.
I will instruct thee and teach thee in the way which thou shalt go:
I will counsel thee with my eye upon thee.
Many sorrows shall be to the wicked;
But he that trusteth in Jehovah, lovingkindness shall compass him about.
Be glad in Jehovah, and rejoice, ye righteous;
And shout for joy, all ye that are upright in heart.

Selection 25

A Sacrifice of Praise

I waited patiently for Jehovah;
And he inclined unto me, and heard my cry.
He brought me up also out of a horrible pit, out of the miry clay;
And he set my feet upon a rock, and established my goings.
And he hath put a new song in my mouth, even praise unto our God:
Many shall see it and fear, and shall trust in Jehovah.
Blessed is the man that maketh Jehovah his trust,
And respecteth not the proud, nor such as turn aside to lies.
Many, O Jehovah my God, are the wonderful works which thou has done,
And thy thoughts which are to us-ward:
They can not be set in order unto thee;
If I would declare and speak of them,
They are more than can be numbered.

Sacrifice and offering thou hast no delight in;
Mine ears hast thou opened:
Burnt-offering and sin-offering hast thou not required.
Then said I, Lo, I am come; in the roll of the book it is written of me:
I delight to do thy will, O my God;
Yea, thy law is within my heart.
I have proclaimed glad tidings of righteousness in the great assembly;
Lo, I will not refrain my lips, O Jehovah, thou knowest.
I have not hid thy righteousness within my heart;
I have declared thy faithfulness and thy salvation;
I have not concealed thy lovingkindness and thy truth from the great assembly.
Withhold not thou thy tender mercies from me, O Jehovah;
Let thy lovingkindness and thy truth continually preserve me.
For innumerable evils have compassed me about;
Mine iniquities have overtaken me, so that I am not able to look up;
They are more than the hairs of my head; and my heart faileth me.
Be pleased, O Jehovah, to deliver me;
Make haste to help me, O Jehovah.
Let them be put to shame and confounded together, that seek after my soul to destroy it:
Let them be turned backward and brought to dishonor that delight in my hurt.
Let them be desolate by reason of their shame that say unto me, Aha, Aha.
Let all those that seek thee rejoice and be glad in thee:
Let such as love thy salvation say continually, Jehovah be magnified.
But I am poor and needy; yet the Lord thinketh upon me:
Thou art my help and my deliverer;
Make no tarrying, O my God.

Selection 26

Thirsting for Jehovah

As the hart panteth after the water brooks, so panteth my soul after thee, O God.
My soul thirsteth for God, for the living God:
When shall I come and appear before God?
My tears have been my food day and night,
While they continually say unto me,
Where is thy God?
These things I remember, and pour out my soul within me,

How I went with the throng, and led them to the house of God,
With the voice of joy and praise, a multitude keeping holyday.
Why art thou cast down, O my soul?
And why art thou disquieted within me?
Hope thou in God; for I shall yet praise him for the help of his countenance.
O my God, my soul is cast down within me:
Therefore do I remember thee from the land of Jordan, and the Hermons, from the hill Mizar.
Deep calleth unto deep at the noise of thy waterfalls:
All thy waves and thy billows are gone over me.
Yet Jehovah will command his lovingkindness in the day-time;
And in the night his song shall be with me, even a prayer unto the God of my life.
I will say unto God my rock, Why hast thou forgotten me?
Why go I mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?
As with a sword in my bones, mine adversaries reproach me,
While they continually say unto me,
Where is thy God?
Why art thou cast down, O my soul?
And why art thou disquieted within me?
Hope thou in God; for I shall yet praise him, who is the help of my countenance, and my God.
O God, thou art my God; earnestly will I seek thee:
My soul thirsteth for thee, my flesh longeth for thee, in a dry and weary land where no water is.
So have I looked upon thee in the sanctuary, to see thy power and thy glory.
Because thy lovingkindness is better than life, my lips shall praise thee.
So will I bless thee while I live:
I will lift up my hands in thy name.
For thou hast been my help, and in the shadow of thy wings will I rejoice.
My soul followeth hard after thee:
Thy right hand upholdeth me.

Selection 27

Jehovah Magnified

Oh come, let us sing unto Jehovah;
Let us make a joyful noise to the rock of our salvation.
Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving;
Let us make a joyful noise unto him with psalms.

For Jehovah is a great God, and a great King above all gods.
In his hand are the deep places of the earth; the heights of the mountains are his also.
The sea is his, and he made it;
And his hands formed the dry land.
Oh come, let us worship and bow down;
Let us kneel before Jehovah our Maker;
For he is our God, and we are the people of his pasture, and the sheep of his hand.
Make a joyful noise unto Jehovah, all ye lands.
Serve Jehovah with gladness:
Come before his presence with singing.
Know ye that Jehovah, he is God:
It is he that hath made us, and we are his; we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.
Enter into his gates with thanksgiving,
And into his courts with praise:
Give thanks unto him, and bless his name.
For Jehovah is good; his lovingkindness endureth for ever,
And his faithfulness unto all generations.
Behold, bless ye Jehovah, all ye servants of Jehovah,
That by night stand in the house of Jehovah.
Lift up your hands to the sanctuary,
And bless Jehovah.
Jehovah bless thee out of Zion; even he that made heaven and earth.
Behold, how good and how pleasant it is
For brethren to dwell together in unity!
It is like the precious oil upon the head, that ran down upon the beard, even Aaron's beard;
That came down upon the skirt of his garments;
Like the dew of Hermon, that cometh down upon the mountains of Zion:
For there Jehovah commanded his blessing, even life for evermore.

Selection 28

The Reign of the Righteous King

Give the King thy judgments, O God,
And thy righteousness to the king's son.
He will judge thy people with righteousness, and thy poor with justice.
The mountains shall bring peace to the people,
And the hills, in righteousness.

He will judge the poor of the people,
He will save the children of the needy,
And will break in pieces the oppressor.
They shall fear thee while the sun endureth, and so long as the moon, throughout all generations.
He will come down like rain upon the mown grass, as showers that water the earth.
In his days shall the righteous flourish, and abundance of peace, till the moon be no more.
He shall have dominion also from sea to sea, and from the River unto the ends of the earth.
They that dwell in the wilderness shall bow before him;
And his enemies shall lick the dust.
The kings of Tarshish and of the isles shall render tribute:
The kings of Sheba and Seba shall offer gifts.
Yea, all kings shall fall down before him;
All nations shall serve him.
For he will deliver the needy when he crieth, and the poor that hath no helper.
He will have pity on the poor and needy, and the souls of the needy he will save.
He will redeem their soul from oppression and violence;
And precious will their blood be in his sight:
And they shall live; and to him shall be given of the gold of Sheba:
And men shall pray for him continually;
They shall bless him all the day long.
There shall be abundance of grain in the earth upon the top of the mountains;
The fruit thereof shall shake like Lebanon:
And they of the city shall flourish like grass of the earth.
His name shall endure for ever;
His name shall be continued as long as the sun:
And men shall be blessed in him;
All nations shall call him happy.
Blessed be Jehovah God, the God of Israel,
Who only doeth wondrous things:
And blessed be his glorious name for ever;
And let the whole earth be filled with his glory. Amen and Amen.

Selection 29

Jehovah Praised

If thou, Jehovah, shouldest mark iniquities, O Lord, who could stand?
But there is forgiveness with thee, that thou mayest be feared.
I wait for Jehovah, my soul doth wait, and in his word do I hope.
My soul waiteth for the Lord, more than watchmen wait for the morning;
Yea, more than watchmen for the morning.
O Israel, hope in Jehovah; for with Jehovah there is lovingkindness,
And with him is plenteous redemption.
And he will redeem Israel from all his iniquities.
Praise ye Jehovah.
I will give thanks unto Jehovah with my whole heart, in the council of the upright, and in the congregation.
The works of Jehovah are great, sought out of all them that have pleasure therein.
His work is honor and majesty; and his righteousness endureth for ever.
He hath made his wonderful works to be remembered:
Jehovah is gracious and merciful.
He hath given food unto them that fear him:
He will ever be mindful of his covenant.
He hath showed his people the power of his works,
In giving them the heritage of the nations.
The works of his hands are truth and justice; all his precepts are sure.
They are established for ever and ever:
They are done in truth and uprightness.
He hath sent redemption unto his people;
He hath commanded his covenant for ever: holy and reverend is his name.
The fear of Jehovah is the beginning of wisdom;
A good understanding have all they that do his commandments:
His praise endureth for ever.
O praise Jehovah, all ye nations; laud him, all ye peoples.
For his lovingkindness is great toward us;
And the truth of Jehovah endureth for ever. Praise ye Jehovah.

Selection 30

Jehovah's Mighty Works

Make a joyful noise unto God, all the earth:
Sing forth the glory of his name: make his praise glorious.
Say unto God, How terrible are thy works! through the greatness of thy power shall thine enemies submit themselves unto thee.
All the earth shall worship thee, and shall sing unto thee; they shall sing to thy name.
Oh bless our God, ye peoples, and make the voice of his praise to be heard;
Who holdeth our soul in life, and suffereth not our feet to be moved.
Come, and hear, all ye that fear God, and I will declare what he hath done for my soul.
I cried unto him with my mouth, and he was extolled with my tongue.
If I regard iniquity in my heart, the Lord will not hear;
But verily God hath heard; he hath attended to the voice of my prayer.
Blessed be God, who hath not turned away my prayer, nor his loving-kindness from me.
Blessed be the Lord, who daily beareth our burden, even the God who is our salvation.
God is unto us a God of deliverances;
And unto Jehovah the Lord belongeth escape from death.
Sing unto God, sing praises to his name: cast up a highway for him that rideth through the deserts;
His name is Jehovah; and exult ye before him.
A father of the fatherless, and a judge of the widows, is God in his holy habitation.
God be merciful unto us, and bless us,
And cause his face to shine upon us;
That thy way may be known upon earth, thy salvation among all nations.
Let the peoples praise thee, O God;
Let all the peoples praise thee.
Oh let the nations be glad and sing for joy;
For thou wilt judge the peoples with equity, and govern the nations upon earth.
Let the peoples praise thee, O God;
Let all the peoples praise thee.
The earth hath yielded its increase:
God, even our own God, will bless us.
God will bless us; and all the ends of the earth shall fear him.

Selection 31

Jehovah's Omnipresence

O Jehovah, thou hast searched me, and known me.
Thou knowest my downsitting and mine uprising;
Thou understandest my thoughts afar off.
Thou searchest out my path and my lying down, and art acquainted with all my ways.
For there is not a word in my tongue, but, lo, O Jehovah, thou knowest it altogether.
Thou hast beset me behind and before, and laid thy hand upon me.
Such knowledge is too wonderful for me; it is high, I can not attain unto it.
Whither shall I go from thy Spirit? or whither shall I flee from thy presence?
If I ascend up into heaven thou art there: if I make my bed in Sheol, behold, thou art there.
If I take the wings of the morning, and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea;
Even there shall thy hand lead me, and thy right hand shall hold me.
If I say, Surely the darkness shall overwhelm me, and the light about me shall be night;
Even the darkness hideth not from thee, but the night shineth as the day:
The darkness and the light are both alike to thee.
How precious also are thy thoughts unto me, O God! how great is the sum of them!
If I should count them, they are more in number than the sand:
When I awake, I am still with thee.
Search me, O God, and know my heart;
Try me, and know my thoughts; and see if there be any wicked way in me,
And lead me in the way everlasting.
Jehovah, I have called upon thee;
Make haste unto me: give ear unto my voice, when I call unto thee.
Let my prayer be set forth as incense before thee; the lifting up of my hands as the evening sacrifice.
Hear my prayer, O Jehovah; give ear to my supplications:
In thy faithfulness answer me, and in thy righteousness.
And enter not into judgment with thy servant; for in thy sight no man living is righteous.

I remember the days of old; I meditate on all thy doings;
I muse on the work of thy hands.
I spread forth my hands unto thee:
My soul thirsteth after thee, as a weary land.
Make haste to answer me, O Jehovah; my spirit faileth:
Hide not thy face from me, lest I become like them that go down into the pit.
Cause me to hear thy lovingkindness in the morning; for in thee do I trust;
Cause me to know the way wherein I should walk; for I lift up my soul unto thee.
Teach me to do thy will; for thou art my God:
Thy Spirit is good; lead me in the land of uprightness.

Selection 32

Confidence in Jehovah

Bow down thine ear, O Jehovah, and answer me;
For I am poor and needy.
Preserve my soul; for I am godly:
O thou my God, save thy servant that trusteth in thee.
Be merciful unto me, O Lord;
For unto thee do I cry all the day long.
Rejoice the soul of thy servant;
For unto thee, O Lord, do I lift up my soul.
For thou, Lord, art good, and ready to forgive,
And abundant in lovingkindness unto all them that call upon thee.
Give ear, O Jehovah, unto my prayer;
And hearken unto the voice of my supplications.
In the day of my trouble I will call upon thee; for thou wilt answer me.
There is none like unto thee among the gods, O Lord;
Neither are there any works like unto thy works.
All nations whom thou hast made shall come and worship before thee, O Lord;
And they shall glorify thy name.
For thou art great, and doest wondrous things: thou art God alone.
Teach me thy way, O Jehovah; I will walk in thy truth:
Unite my heart to fear thy name.
I will praise thee, O Lord my God, with my whole heart;
And I will glorify thy name for evermore.

For great is thy lovingkindness toward me;
And thou hast delivered my soul from the lowest Sheol.
O God, the proud are risen up against me,
And a company of violent men have sought after my soul,
And have not set thee before them.
But thou, O Lord, art a God merciful and gracious,
Slow to anger, and abundant in lovingkindness and truth.
Oh turn unto me, and have mercy upon me;
Give thy strength unto thy servant,
And save the son of thy handmaid.
Show me a token for good, that they who hate me may see it, and be put to shame.
Because thou, Jehovah, hast helped me, and comforted me.

Selection 33

The Beatitudes

Blessed are the poor in spirit:
For theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
Blessed are they that mourn:
For they shall be comforted.
Blessed are the meek:
For they shall inherit the earth.
Blessed are they that hunger and thirst after righteousness:
For they shall be filled.
Blessed are the merciful:
For they shall obtain mercy.
Blessed are the pure in heart:
For they shall see God.
Blessed are the peacemakers:
For they shall be called sons of God.
Blessed are they that have been persecuted for righteousness' sake:
For theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
Blessed are ye when men shall reproach you, and persecute you, and say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake.
Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets that were before you.

Selection 34

The Ten Commandments

Thou shalt have no other gods before me.

Thou shalt not make unto thee a graven image, nor any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth:

Thou shalt not bow down thyself unto them, nor serve them;

For I Jehovah thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children, upon the third and upon the fourth generation of them that hate me,

And showing lovingkindness unto thousands of them that love me and keep my commandments.

Thou shalt not take the name of Jehovah thy God in vain;

For Jehovah will not hold him guiltless that taketh his name in vain.

Remember the sabbath day, to keep it holy.

Six days shalt thou labour, and do all thy work; but the seventh day is a sabbath unto Jehovah thy God:

In it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy man-servant, nor thy maid-servant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates:

For in six days Jehovah made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day:

Wherefore Jehovah blessed the seventh day, and hallowed it.

Honour thy father and thy mother, that thy days may be long in the land which Jehovah thy God giveth thee.

Thou shalt not kill.

Thou shalt not commit adultery.

Thou shalt not steal.

Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbour.

Thou shalt not covet thy neighbour's house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbour's wife, nor his man-servant, nor his maid-servant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor anything that is thy neighbour's.

Jesus' Summary of the Law

And he said unto him, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind.

This is the great and first commandment.

And a second like unto it is this,

Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself.

On these two commandments the whole law hangeth, and the prophets.

Selection 35

The Greatness of Love

If I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, but have not love,
I am become sounding brass, or a clanging cymbal.

And if I have the gift of prophecy, and know all mysteries, and all knowledge;
And if I have all faith, so as to remove mountains, but have not love, I am nothing.

And if I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and if I give my body to be burned, but have not love, it profiteth me nothing.
Love suffereth long, and is kind;

Love envieth not; love vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up,
Doth not behave itself unseemly, seeketh not its own,

Is not provoked, taketh not account of evil;
Rejoiceth not in unrighteousness,

But rejoiceth with the truth;
Beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things.

Love never faileth: but whether there be prophecies, they shall be done away;
Whether there be tongues, they shall cease; whether there be knowledge, it shall be done away.

For we know in part, and we prophesy in part; but when that which is perfect is come, that which is in part shall be done away.
When I was a child I spake as a child, I felt as a child, I thought as a child:

Now that I am become a man, I have put away childish things.
For now we see in a mirror, darkly; but then face to face:

Now I know in part; but then shall I know fully even as also I was fully known.
But now abideth faith, hope, love, these three; and the greatest of these is love.
